Mauro L. Baranzini • Amalia Mirante

Luigi L. Pasinetti: An Intellectual Biography

Leading Scholar and System Builder of the Cambridge School of Economics

palgrave macmillan
Contents

1 Introduction: Luigi L. Pasinetti—A Leading Scholar of the Second Generation of the Cambridge School of Keynesian Economics 1

Part I Life and Research Activity of Luigi L. Pasinetti 31

2 Youth at Zanica, Bergamo, and Academic Studies at the Catholic University of Milan, then Cambridge, Harvard and Cambridge Again 33

3 Nuffield College, Oxford (1959–61) and then King’s College, Cambridge (1961–76) 67

4 Back to the Catholic University of Milan (1976 Onwards) 95
Contents

Part II  Pasinetti's Main Research Lines  113

5  Pasinetti's Main Research Lines. On Productivity Changes and on Ricardo  115

6  Pasinetti on Post-Keynesian Income Distribution and Growth Theory: The Basic Issues  131

7  Pasinetti on Post-Keynesian Income Distribution and Growth Theory: Further Developments  177

8  Pasinetti on Capital Theory  225

9  Pasinetti on Structural Economic Dynamics and on the Pure Labour Theory of Value  247

10 Pasinetti on 'Natural' Versus 'Institutional' Relations: Two Conferences in His Honour  277

11  Finale and Pasinetti's Legacy  297

Credits  317

Further Reading Bibliography  347

Name Index  363

Subject Index  375