Small Cities with Big Dreams
Creative Placemaking and Branding Strategies

Greg Richards and Lian Duif
Contents

List of Figures x
List of Tables xi
List of Photos xii
List of Boxes xiv
Preface xv

1 Small Cities, Big Challenges 1
   Introduction 1
   Throwing the Spotlight on Small Cities 3
   The Advantages of Being Small 8
   Getting Back to the Human Scale 10
   How Can Small Cities Compete? 12
   Small Places Creating Big Dreams 14
   Towards a Creative Mode of Placemaking 15
   The Elements of Placemaking 18
   The Need for a Programme 20
   Outline of the Volume 21
   How Is This Book Different? 24

2 Creating Opportunities with Limited Resources 30
   Introduction 30
   Towards a Framework for Analysing Urban Resources 31
   Competing with Scarce Resources: Does Size Matter? 34
   Moving from Urbanization to Urbanity? 36
   Public Space and Urban Amenities 39
   Maintaining Distinction: The Role of Culture,
     Leisure, and Events 43
   People and Talent 49
   Towards New Ways of Thinking about Urban Resources 56
   Conclusions 59
3 Placemaking Process: Putting Things on the Move
The Place of Small Cities in a Globalizing World 65
Where Do We Want To Be in 25 Years? 66
Stakeholders of the Small City 67
Developing a Vision as Programme Focus 70
Seeking Inspiration for a Shared Vision 73
Building Placemaking Partnerships 76
Planning vs Programming 81

4 The Art of Collaboration: Finding External Partners and Keeping Them on Board
Collaboration as a New Mindset 88
Towards New Forms of Partnership 89
Network Development in 's-Hertogenbosch 93
International Knowledge Network: Bosch Research and Conservation Project 95
International Cultural Network: Bosch Cities Network 96
Efteling–Heritage Network: Bosch Experience 98
Brabant Museums Network: Bosch Grand Tour 100
The Networks in a Placemaking Perspective 102
What's In It for Us and Them? 102
Building Knowledge Networks 106
Taking Position to Create Network Value 110
Conclusions 114

5 Governance: The Art of Getting Things Done
Introduction 118
The Economic Challenge: Attracting Resources 119
Governance: The Enabling Framework 120
Programme Governance 125
Network Governance 126
Developing Regimes to Get Things Done 129
Leadership 132
The Fluidity of Practices 136
Conclusions 137

6 Marketing and Branding the Small City
Introduction 141
Building the Place Brand 141
Developing the Brand 145
Cities Need a Story 147
Telling the 's-Hertogenbosch Story 147
Welcome Home, Hieronymus! 151
From Vision to Brand 157
Conclusion 161

7 Impacts and Effects: Reaping the Rewards and Counting the Costs 163
Introduction 163
Establishing the Desired Effects 163
Measuring the Things That Count in a Programme 165
Measuring Change 169
Identifying Indicators 170
Local Pride and Social Cohesion 174
Cultural Effects 179
Counting the Cost 181
Costs of Bidding for Programmes 186
Intangible Programme Costs 187
Problems of Assessment 189
Conclusions 190

8 Tempo: Good Placemaking Takes Time 193
Introduction 193
Making Time for Change 195
Choosing Your Moment 196
Persevering in the Face of Adversity 200
Multi-annual Cultural Programming 204
The Programme Cycle 210
Small Cities Can Create Time 212
Conclusions 213

Introduction 215
Critical Success Factors 217
Learning from ‘s-Hertogenbosch? 218
Political Will and Long-Term Vision 219
Building a Placemaking Platform 227
Potential Pitfalls 230
Can These Principles Be Transferred to Other Places? 236
Concluding Thoughts: The Changing Position of the Small City in the Urban Field 237

Index 245