Sustainable Fashion
Governance and New Management Approaches

Springer
Contents

Part I  Introduction

Introduction to Sustainable Fashion Governance 3
Anna-Maria Schneider and Sarah Margaretha Jastram

Part II  Governance and Regulation

The UN Guiding Principles for Business and Human Rights as a Framework for Action in Global Textile Supply Chains 11
Natascha Weisert

Towards Sustainable Global Value Chains: The Role of the Group of Seven 25
Roger A. Fischer

Transforming the Garment Industry in Bangladesh: Sharing Responsibility 41
Dorothée Baumann-Pauly, Sarah Labowitz, and Nate Stein

Part III  Management Approaches and Business Cases

Human Rights in Global Supply Chains 53
Nanda Bergstein

Creating Sustainable Business Partnerships at H&M Through Collaboration 67
Hendrik Heuermann

Value Chain Impact Measurement at the Otto Group 77
Andreas Streubig

Filippa K's Fashion Manifest: Long Lasting Simplicity 83
Elin Larsson
Sustainability Strategies in Luxury Fashion: Company Disclosure on Human Rights .......................................................... 97
Isabel Ebert

Melawear: Inspired by Cradle to Cradle ......................................................... 109
Henning Siedentopp

From Hospital Sheet to High Quality Design Dress: Tauko’s Upcycling Method to Sustainable Fashion ............................. 121
Mila Moisio

Traceability: The Respect-Code Solution ................................................... 129
Robin Cornelius

Sustainable Fashion: From Production to Alternative Consumption .......................................................... 139
Samira Iran

Part IV Conclusion

New Business and Governance Approaches to Sustainable Fashion: Learning from the Experts ............................................. 163
Anna-Maria Schneider and Sarah Margaretha Jastram