CONTENTS

Introduction to the Liberty Fund Edition  xi
  by Peter J. Boettke and Frédéric Sautet

ECONOMICS, MARKETS, AND INDIVIDUAL FREEDOM
Entrepreneurship, Choice, and Freedom  3
Divergent Approaches in Libertarian Economic Thought 18
Must Capitalism Yield to Socialism?  31
Why the Market Outclasses the State  38
Liberalism and Limited Government  41
Individualistic Capitalism  44
Spontaneous Order and the Case for the Free Market  62
The "Power" Problem on Campus: An Economist's View  69

THE NATURE OF ECONOMIC SCIENCE
Value-Freedom  79
Philosophical and Ethical Implications of Austrian Economics  87
Self-Interest and the New Bashing of Economics:
  A Fresh Opportunity in the Perennial Debate?  99
Human Attitudes and Economic Growth  114
What Economists Do  119
The "Austrian" Perspective on the Crisis  126
Lionel Robbins's Nature and Significance, Fifty Years Later  138
Rationality, Entrepreneurship, and Economic "Imperialism"  154
The Economics of Greed or the Economics of Purpose 168

WELFARE ECONOMICS
Coordination as a Criterion for Economic "Goodness" 183
Welfare Economics: A Modern Austrian Perspective  200
Austrian Economics, the Coordination Criterion, and Classical Liberalism  213
ETHICS AND MORALITY
Altruism, Social Responsibility, and the Market Economy  231
The Ugly Market: Why Capitalism Is Hated, Feared, and Despised  244
The Ethics of Competition  257
The Morality of Capitalist Success  272
Economic Science and the Morality of Capitalism  286
Some Ethical Implications for Capitalism of the Socialist Calculation Debate  295
The Morality of Pure Profit: The Logic and Illogic of a Popular Phobia  316
The Nature of Profits: Some Economic Insights and Their Ethical Implications  332

INSTITUTIONS
The Primacy of Entrepreneurial Discovery  363
The Limits of the Market: The Real and the Imagined  384

POLICY
Taxes and Discovery: An Entrepreneurial Perspective  397
The Perils of Regulation: A Market-Process Approach  418
Rejoinder [The Case for Free Markets]  446
The Anatomy of Economic Advice, Part I  448
The Anatomy of Economic Advice, Part II  458
The Anatomy of Economic Advice, Part III  467
Toward an Austrian Critique of Governmental Economic Policy  477
Incentives for Discovery  481
The Goals of Antitrust: A Critique  494
Entrepreneurship and American Competitiveness  510
Menger, Classical Liberalism, and the Austrian School of Economics  526
CONTENTS ix

ECONOMIC EDUCATION
The Nature and Significance of Economic Education 545

THE LEGACY OF AUSTRIAN ECONOMICS
Austrian School of Economics 555
Friedrich August von Hayek 571
Roger W. Garrison and Israel M. Kirzner
Fifty Years of FEE—Fifty Years of Progress in Austrian Economics 591
Economic Harmony 602
Austrian Economics and Mainstream Economics, 1930–1950:
A Study in Doctrinal Complementarity and Substitutability 608
The Use of Labels in Doctrinal History: Comment on Baird 620
The Austrian Tradition: Commentary by Israel M. Kirzner 626
“Introduction” to Classics in Austrian Economics, Volume 1 635
“Introduction” to Classics in Austrian Economics, Volume 2 658
“Introduction” to Classics in Austrian Economics, Volume 3 673

INTERVIEWS
Austrian Economics and the Theory of Entrepreneurship:
Israel M. Kirzner Interviewed by Stephan Boehm on 2 May 1989 689
The Kirznerian Way: An Interview with Israel M. Kirzner 708
A Conversation with Israel Kirzner, July 2006, by Peter J. Boettke and Frédéric Sautet 725

Index 763