Contents

Preface  ix

List of Tables and Figures  xiii

List of Abbreviations  xvii

Introduction: A Framework for Mapping Power
Sunila S. Kale, Navroz K. Dubash, and Ranjit Bharvirkar

1. Transforming Reforms: Hype, Hostility, and Placation in Andhra Pradesh’s Power Sector Reforms
Ashwini K. Swain  28

2. Disempowerment of Incumbent Elite and Governance: A Case of Bihar’s Electricity Sector
Md Zakaria Siddiqui  50

3. Wielding Power in the Capital: The Case of the Delhi Electricity Distribution Sector
Megha Kaladharan  72

4. Gujarat’s success in Efficient Electricity Distribution: A Call for Proactive Governance to Further Gains
Siddharth Sareen  93

5. Extractive States and Layered Conflict: The Case of Jharkhand’s Electricity Sector
Rohit Chandra  114

6. Efficiency and Welfare: The Tightrope Walk in Karnataka’s Power Sector
Meera Sudhakar  134
7. Poverty in the Midst of Abundance: Repressive Populism, Bureaucratization, and Supply-side Bias in Madhya Pradesh’s Power Sector
   Ashwini K. Swain
   155

8. Paradoxes of Distribution Reforms in Maharashtra
   Kalpana Dixit
   176

9. Endless Restructuring of the Power Sector in Odisha: A Sisyphean Tale?
   Mrigakshi Das and Mahaprajna Nayak
   193

    Ashwini K. Swain
    215

11. Electricity Distribution in Rajasthan: Unbundling the Recurrent Failures of a Politicized Sector
    Siddharth Sareen
    237

12. Tamil Nadu Power Sector: The Saga of the Subsidy Trap
    Hema Ramakrishnan
    255

13. Stalled Reform in the Face of Electoral Fears: Uttar Pradesh’s Electricity Distribution Sector
    Jonathan Balls
    274

14. Uttarakhand: The Golden Combination of Cheap Energy and a Large Industrial Base
    Jonathan Balls
    296

15. Insulated Wires: The Precarious Rise of West Bengal’s Power Sector
    Elizabeth Chatterjee
    319

    Conclusion: Mapping Power in Comparative State Context
    Navroz K. Dubash, Sunila S. Kale, and Ranjit Bharvirkar
    340

Index

About the Editors and Contributors