

---

Rewarding Performance

---

Guiding Principles; Custom Strategies

Second Edition

Robert J. Greene

---

Contents

---

Introduction to the Second Edition	xi
Author Biography	xvii
Acknowledgements	xviii

PART I

Guiding Principles 1

1 Human Resource Management Strategy 3

Formulating an HR Strategy That Fits the Organizational Context 4

Vision/Mission 4

Culture 5

Environmental Realities 6

Organizational Realities 7

Strategy 8

Structure 9

Human Resource Management Strategy 10

Aligning HR Strategies across the Organization 13

Performance and Rewards Management 14

The Implications of Cognitive Bias 15

Application of Principles: Chapter 1 16

2 Performance Management: Guiding Principles 18

Criteria for Producing Motivation 21

Knows What “It” Is 21

Able to Do “It” 23

Allowed to Do “It” 24

Wants to Do “It” 24

Defining and Measuring Performance across Levels 26

Performance Management at the Organization-wide Level 27

Performance Management at the Business Unit/Group/Team Level 28

Performance at the Individual Level	28
Evidence-based Performance Management	34
Application of Principles: Chapter 2	37

3 Rewards Management: Guiding Principles 39

Formulating a Direct Compensation Strategy	40
Formulating an Indirect Compensation Strategy	42
Executing the Direct Compensation Strategy	44
Base Pay Strategy	44
Variable Compensation Strategy	54
Indirect Compensation Strategy	58
Non-monetary Rewards Strategy	59
Evidence-based Rewards Management	61
Application of Principles: Chapter 3	65

PART II

Custom Strategies 67

4 Rewarding Performance: Executives and Managers 69

Who Should Determine How Much and How Executives Are Paid?	71
The Executives Themselves	71
Other Employees	71
Government and Society	72
Board of Directors	73
Shareholders	73
Which of These Perspectives Is “Correct” and Who Decides?	73
Effective and Defensible Executive Compensation Programs	74
Executive Compensation Programs That Should Be Avoided	76
Establishing an Acceptable Executive Compensation Strategy	78
Technical Program Design Issues	79
The Level at Which Performance Is Defined, Measured and Rewarded	79
How Performance Criteria and Standards Are Selected and Weighted for Relative Importance	80
The Timeframe Used for Defining, Measuring and Rewarding Performance	80
Reconciling the Interests of the Organization and of Executives or Managers	81
Performance and Rewards Management for Other Management Personnel	82
Evidence-based Management of Executive Performance and Rewards	87
Application of Principles: Chapter 4	89

5 Rewarding Performance: Professionals	90
What Is Different about Professional Personnel?	90
What Impact Do These Characteristics Have on Managing Performance and Rewards?	91
Role Definition and Career Management	92
Performance Management	105
Rewards Management	106
Technicians: A Special Case?	109
Strategies across National Borders	109
Rewarding Professionals Who Are Not Employees	111
Evidence-based Rewards Management for Professionals	111
Application of Principles: Chapter 5	112
6 Rewarding Performance: Operating and Administrative Support Personnel	113
Performance Management	114
Rewards Management	122
Single Rate Base Pay Systems	124
Time-based Base Pay Systems	124
Performance-based Pay Systems	125
Rewarding Performance: Part-Time/Temporary Employees	128
Application of Principles: Chapter 6	129
7 Rewarding Performance: Sales Personnel	131
Developing a Performance and Rewards Management Strategy for Sales Personnel	132
Defining the Roles within the Sales Function	134
Mix of Base and Variable Compensation	135
Determining Competitive Position Relative to the Market	139
Critical Administrative Issues	140
Implementation	140
Administration	141
Evaluation	142
Compensating Sales Support Personnel	142
Compensating Sales Management	142
Compensating International Sales Personnel	143
Application of Principles: Chapter 7	144
8 Rewarding Performance: Teams	145
Performance and Rewards Management for Work (Process) Teams	146
Performance and Rewards Management for Project Teams	149

	Performance and Rewards Management for Parallel Teams	152
	Application of Principles: Chapter 8	154
9	Rewarding Performance: Public Sector and Not-for-Profit Organizations	156
	Performance Management	156
	Rewards Management	159
	Time-based Pay	160
	What Are the Alternatives to Time-based Pay?	161
	Application of Principles: Chapter 9	167
10	Rewarding Performance: Global Workforces	168
	Hypotheses about the Impact of Culture on Performance Management	173
	Evaluating Performance Appraisal System Effectiveness	175
	Hypotheses about the Impact of Culture on Rewards Management	176
	Evaluating the Effectiveness of Rewards Strategies	179
	The HR Function's Role in Performance and Rewards Management	180
	Application of Principles: Chapter 10	181
11	Rewarding Performance: Contractors, Consultants and Freelancers	182
	Application of Principles: Chapter 11	190
PART III
	Strategy Integration	191
12	Managing Performance	193
	Application of Principles: Chapter 12	210
13	Managing Rewards: Base Pay	212
	Managing Base Pay	213
	Merit (Job-based) Pay	213
	Person-based Pay	217
	Administering Base Pay Programs	222
	Timing of Pay Actions	223
	Administrative Controls Utilized	223
	Customized versus Consistent Base Pay Programs	227
	Application of Principles: Chapter 13	227
14	Managing Rewards: Variable Compensation	229
	Characteristics of Variable Compensation	229
	Where Variable Compensation Plans Fit	232

Individual Plans	232
Group Plans	234
Organization-wide Plans	234
Variable Compensation Plan Design Issues	236
Plan Objectives	236
Type of Plan	237
Eligibility	237
Formula for Determining Award Funds	238
Formula for Allocating Funds	239
Form and Timing of Awards	242
Plan Implementation	242
Plan Administration	243
Administrative Issues	244
Evaluating Plan Effectiveness	245
Prerequisites for Variable Compensation Plan Success	245
When Is a Plan Likely to Fail?	246
Application of Principles: Chapter 14	246
15 Evaluating Strategies and Administering Programs	248
Designing the "Instrument Panel" for Evaluating Programs	249
Evaluating Programs Using the Model	252
Program Objectives	252
Program Methodology and Process	253
Determining the Business Impact of Program Modifications	255
Performing Evaluations	256
Applying the Evaluation Results	257
A Major Decision: Is Application of Policy Variable at the Individual Level?	258
Application of Principles: Chapter 15	266
16 Sustainable Strategies: Facing into the Future	267
Alternative Rewards Strategies	270
Evaluating Future Workforce Viability	276
Attract the Right People	278
Develop People Appropriately	278
Maximize the Available Supply of Human Resources	279
Maximize Workforce Productivity	279
Disseminate Knowledge Effectively	280
Redesign the Organization and Employee Roles	280
Manage Losses Due to Retirement	280
Manage Losses Due to Turnover	281
Outsource Work the Organization Cannot Do Efficiently or Effectively	282
Application of Principles: Chapter 16	284

Appendix 1 Applying Analytics to Performance and Rewards Management	285
Types of Quantitative Measures	285
Central Tendency Measures	285
Distribution Measures	286
Relationship Measures	288
Applying Research Findings	290
Conclusion	292
Appendix 2 Defining and Evaluating Organizational Culture	293
Organizational Culture	293
Workforce Culture(s)	298
Occupational Culture	298
Generational Culture	299
National/Ethnic Culture	300
Accommodating Workforce Cultural Characteristics	301
Index	303