ON PETROCULTURES

GLOBALIZATION, CULTURE, AND ENERGY

Imre Szeman
CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ................................................................. ix
Introduction: On Petrocultures ............................................... 1

1. Who's Afraid of National Allegory?
   Jameson, Literary Criticism, Globalization ......................... 23
2. Culture and Globalization, or, The Humanities in Ruins .......... 48
3. Globalization, Postmodernism, and Literary Criticism .......... 71
4. System Failure: Oil, Futurity, and the Anticipation of Disaster ...................................... 93
5. Neoliberals Dressed in Black, or, the Traffic in Creativity ...... 113
6. The Cultural Politics of Oil:
   On Lessons of Darkness and Black Sea Files ...................... 137
7. Crude Aesthetics:
   The Politics of Oil Documentaries ................................... 154
8. How to Know about Oil:
   Energy Epistemologies and Political Futures ...................... 174
9. Entrepreneurship as the New Common Sense ...................... 200
10. Conjectures on World Energy Literature .......................... 220
11. Pipelines and Territories:
    On Energy and Environmental Futures in Canada ............. 238
12. On the Politics of Region ............................................... 260

References ................................................................. 269
Sources and Permissions .................................................. 285
Index ................................................................. 287