Universities and Regional Economic Development
Engaging with the Periphery

Edited by Paul Benneworth
Contents

List of figures
ix

List of tables
x

Notes on contributors
xi

Preface
xiii

1 Universities and regional development in peripheral regions
1

Paul Benneworth and Lisa Nieth

2 Universities and neo-endogenous peripheral development: towards a systematic classification
13

Lisa Nieth and Paul Benneworth

3 Towards a strategic alignment: regional challenges and university tensions in peripheral geographies
26

Rómulo Pinheiro

4 University roles in a peripheral Southern European region: between traditional and 'engaged' roles through the provision of knowledge intensive business services
41

Hugo Pinto, Elvira Uyarra and Manuel Fernández-Esquinias

5 'Strange bird': a peripheral university college in a complex, peripheral region
58

James Karlsen

6 The case of the Telemark region and the university college of Telemark
76

Nina Kyllingstad
Contents

7 Vysočina region: from a remote rural region straight into the virtual world 92
LIBOR PRUDKÝ AND MICHAELA ŠMÍDOVÁ

8 Usti region: learning hard about industry modernisation 110
INNA ČÁBELKOVÁ AND JAN KOHOUTEK

9 Higher education institutions at the periphery of the periphery: creating sustainable economic development in Estonia 127
ANNE KEERBERG

10 Universities and regional economic development in cross-border regions 145
JOS VAN DEN BROEK, FRANZISKA ECKARDT AND PAUL BENNEWORTH

11 Constructing regional resilience in a knowledge economy crisis: the case of the Nokia-led ICT industry in Tampere 163
HELI KURIKKA, JARI KOLEHMAINEN AND MARKKU SOTARAUHA

12 Conceptualising the university-region economic development interface in peripheral regions 180
PAUL BENNEWORTH AND LISA NIETH

13 Future perspectives on universities and peripheral regional development 194
LISA NIETH AND PAUL BENNEWORTH

Index 209