

The Future of Mining in South Africa: Sunset or Sunrise?

EDITED BY
Salimah Valiani

THIS RESEARCH PROJECT WAS SUPPORTED BY:

Contents

Preface.....	vii
Acknowledgements.....	xi
Contributors.....	xv
Chapter 1: Introducing the debates – Salimah Valiani	1
SECTION ONE: TRANSFORMING MINING FOR A MORE INCLUSIVE FUTURE
Chapter 2: Towards Mining Vision 2030 – Joel Netshitenzhe	17
Chapter 3: The gold of the 21st century: A vision for South Africa’s platinum group metals – Edwin Ritchken	66
Chapter 4: Transformation in South Africa’s mining industry – Duma Gqubule	121
Chapter 5: Greening South African mining through the Fourth Industrial Revolution – Ross Harvey	144
Chapter 6: Formalising artisanal and small-scale mining: Problems, contradictions and possibilities – Hibist Kassa	179

SECTION TWO: THE FUTURE CONTEXTUALISED
IN THE INDUSTRY'S CONTINUING PAST

Chapter 7: Private property? Village struggles over meanings of land and mining revenues on South Africa's platinum belt – Sonwabile Mnwana	205
Chapter 8: Cleaning up after mines are long gone: Understanding the complex dimensions for inclusive development – Shingirirai S. Mutanga	232
Chapter 9: A feminist perspective on women and mining in South Africa – Salimah Valiani and Nester Ndebele	266
Chapter 10: Trade union organising in the mining sector: A structural perspective on worker insurgency and shifting union strategies – Khwezi Mabasa and Crispen Chinguno	298

SECTION THREE: BEYOND MINING: JUST TRANSITION AND WELLBEING

Chapter 11: The mining-energy nexus, climate change and prospects of just transition: Reflections of a labour educator – Hameda Deedat	335
Chapter 12: The future of mineral mining: Pathways for a wellbeing economy approach – Lorenzo Fioramonti	358
Concluding remarks: Exhausting the debates: Moving to action? – Salimah Valiani	381
List of abbreviations.....	385
Index.....	390