AGAINST EUROPEAN INTEGRATION

The European Union and its Discontents

Ivan T. Berend
End of globalization? The increasing importance of regionalization 114
Austerity policy as exploitation of peripheral countries? 115
Serving the oligarchs? 116
The straitjacket of euro and national sovereignty 118
Real causes of revolt: social shock caused by complex societal changes 118

10 Outside discontents: the weakening alliance with the US, a hostile Russia, and Turkey and China at the borders 122
A loosening alliance with the US 122
The failure to keep Turkey in the EU’s orbit 128
The failure of the Balkans’ policy toward the EU 130
The failure of the EU’s southern and eastern neighborhood policies 134
Russia against the EU: its counter attacks and provocations 140
Europe’s dangerous oil dependence on Russia and the EU’s plans to eliminate it 144
China is entering the ring: the Balkan Silk Road 146

11 Out from crisis or between crises? The EU of the future 155
Steps of further integration: the road toward a fiscal and banking union 155
First steps toward a European army 161
Alternatives for further integration 167
Plans for the future of Europe 169

Index 179