Uganda

The Dynamics of Neoliberal Transformation

Edited by Jörg Wiegratz, Giuliano Martiniello and Elisa Greco

Published with the support of African Political Economy
Contents

List of illustrations ix
About the contributors x
Acknowledgements xii

Introduction: interpreting change in neoliberal Uganda 1
Jörg Wiegratz, Giuliano Martiniello and Elisa Greco

Part I: The state, donors and development aid
1. Donor-driven state formation: friction in the World Bank-Uganda partnership
Jon Harald Sande Lie 43

2. Our friends at the bank? The adverse effects of neoliberalism in Acholi
Ronald R. Atkinson 60

3. Neoliberal discipline and violence in northern Uganda
Adam Branch and Adrian Yen 78

4. ‘Movement legacy’ and neoliberalism as political settlement in Uganda’s political economy
Joshua B. Rubongoya 95

5. More is less? Decentralisation and regime control in neoliberal Uganda
Kristof Titeca 111

6. Neoliberal neverland: the Millennium Villages Project in Uganda
Japhy Wilson 127

Part II: Economic restructuring and social services
7. The impact of neoliberal reforms on Uganda’s socio-economic landscape
Godfrey B. Asiimwe 145

8. Social service provision and social security in Uganda: entrenched inequality under a neoliberal regime
Malin J. Nystrand and Gordon Tamm 163
9. Neoliberal health reforms and citizenship in Uganda
Sarah N. Ssali

Part III: Extractivism and enclosures

10. Neoliberalism as Ugandan forestry discourse
Adrian Nel

11. Plantation forestry and carbon violence in neoliberal Uganda
Kristen Lyons

12. Neoliberal oil development in Uganda: centralisation, accumulation and exclusion
Laura Smith and James Van Alstine

13. Water grabbing or sustainable development? Effects of aquaculture growth in neoliberal Uganda
Karin Wedig

14. The politics of land law reforms in neoliberal Uganda
Rose Nakayi

Part IV: Race, culture and commoditisation

15. African Asians and South Asians in neoliberal Uganda: culture, history and political economy
Anneeth Kaur Hundle

Barbara Bompani

17. Youth as 'identity entrepreneurs': emerging neoliberal subjectivities in Uganda
Julia Vorhölter

18. Neoliberal times: leisure and work among young men in rural eastern Uganda
Ben Jones

19. The transformation of national performance arts in neoliberal Uganda
David G. Pier

Conclusion: neoliberalism institutionalised
Jörg Wiegratz, Giuliano Martiniello and Elisa Greco

Index