Handbook on the International Political Economy of China

Edited by

Ka Zeng

University of Arkansas, USA
Contents

List of contributors x

1 Introduction to the Handbook on the International Political Economy of China
   Ka Zeng 1

PART I TRADE AND THE CHANGING CONTEXT OF CHINA’S INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL ECONOMY

2 China’s international political economy – the changing economic context
   Barry Naughton 20

3 China’s trade policy: Evolution and determinants
   Bin Sheng and Xiaosong Wang 42

PART II FOREIGN DIRECT INVESTMENT

4 Foreign direct investment in China
   Yu Zheng 61

5 Chinese outward foreign direct investment (COFDI): A primer and assessment of the state of COFDI research
   Jean-Marc F. Blanchard 76

6 Chinese direct investment in Europe: Economic opportunities and political challenges
   Sophie Meunier 98

7 China’s investment relations with Japan
   Ming Wan and Hong Zhang 113

8 China’s international energy engagement
   Philip Andrews-Speed 132

9 The political economy of Chinese investment treaties
   Axel Berger 151

PART III CHINA AND INTERNATIONAL FINANCE

10 You can check in anytime you like, but you can never leave: The politics of China’s financial market opening
    Anton Malkin and Yu-wai Vic Li 170

vii
Handbook on the international political economy of China

11 From tailwinds to headwinds: The troubled internationalization of the renminbi
   Daniel McDowell

12 US-China exchange rate dispute
   Yonghong Tu and Dongsheng Di

13 The China Investment Corporation and the rise of sovereign wealth funds
   Adam D. Dixon

14 The domestic politics of China's exchange rate policy
   Alex (Xingqiang) He

PART IV CHINA AND GLOBAL ECONOMIC GOVERNANCE

Section 1 China in the Global Trading System

15 China and the WTO: On a path to leadership?
   Marcia Don Harpaz

16 China's policy on free trade agreements
   Yang Jiang

Section 2 China and Global Financial Governance

17 From activism to status quo: The convergence of state and institutional preferences in China's relationship with the IMF
   Anton Malkin and Bessma Momani

18 The rise of a constrained power in international financial governance: An analysis of China–IMF collaboration
   Jue Wang

19 China, the G20 and global governance
   Ren Xiao

20 China's evolving role in global governance: The AIIB and the limits of an alternative international order
   Mark Beeson and Shaomin Xu

21 China and the "Belt and Road Initiative" (BRI): Contested multilateralism and innovative institution-building
   Wei Liang

22 China and regional financial cooperation: From observer, to participant, to (co-)leader...of an irrelevance?
   Paul Bowles and Brian K. MacLean
Section 3  China and International Development

23  The motives of China’s foreign aid
    Andreas Fuchs and Marina Rudyak
    392

24  China and global climate change governance
    Margaret M. Pearson
    411

25  The rise of China in the international intellectual property regime
    Peter K. Yu
    424

Index
    445