Corporate Standardization Management and Innovation

Kai Jakobs
RWTH Aachen University, Germany
Table of Contents

Preface .................................................................................................................. xv
Acknowledgment .................................................................................................. xxi

Section 1
Invited Papers

Chapter 1
Standardization, Not Standards Matter ................................................................. 1
Carl Cargill, Sun Microsystems, USA

Chapter 2
How Corporate Standardization Shapes Tomorrow's Business ......................... 16
Alice de Casanove, Airbus Defence and Space, France

Chapter 3
Challenges Facing Technology Standardization in the Age of Digital Transformation ................................. 34
Brian McAuliffe, HP Inc., Ireland

Section 2
Internal Standardization Management in Industry and Administration

Chapter 4
Standardization as an Organizational Capability: Examples From a Global Player in the Information and Communication Technology Industry ........................................ 47
Magnus Johansson, Lund University, Sweden
Niklas L. Hallberg, Lund University, Sweden

Chapter 5
Company IT Standardization: Anticipated Agile Benefits ..................................... 68
Robert M. van Wessel, ApexIS, The Netherlands
Henk J. de Vries, Erasmus University, The Netherlands & Delft University of Technology, The Netherlands
Chapter 6
Managing In-Company Standardization While Avoiding Resistance: A Philosophical-Empirical Approach

Ries Haverkamp, Interface, The Netherlands
Henk de Vries, Erasmus University, The Netherlands & Delft University of Technology, The Netherlands

Chapter 7
The Role of Internal Standardization in Business Models: An Activity Configurations Perspective

Magnus Johansson, Lund University, Sweden
Matts Kärreman, Lund University, Sweden
Amalia Foukaki, Lund University, Sweden

Chapter 8
Effective Management of Standardizing in E-Government

Dian Balta, fortiss GmbH, Germany

Section 3
Ethics and Responsibility in Standards Setting

Chapter 9
Ethics and Standardization

John-Stewart Gordon, Vytautas Magnus University, Lithuania
Vladislav V. Fomin, Vytautas Magnus University, Lithuania & Vilnius University, Lithuania

Chapter 10
Managing Responsible Standardization of Smart Infrastructures and Applications

Kai Jakobs, RWTH Aachen University, Germany

Section 4
Legal Aspects

Chapter 11
Licensing Terms for IoT Standard-Setting: Do We Need “End-User” or “License for All” Concepts?

Matt Heckman, Zuyd University of Applied Science, The Netherlands & Maastricht University, The Netherlands

Chapter 12
Customer-Driven Standardization in the Forensic Science Market in England and Wales

Karen McGregor Richmond, University of Strathclyde, UK
Section 5
A Mixed Bag

Chapter 13
Predatory Strategies in Standards Wars: On Creating Fear, Uncertainty, and Doubt ........................................ 234
  Tineke Mirjam Egyedi, DI RoS, The Netherlands
  Anique Hommels, Maastricht University, The Netherlands

Chapter 14
Profit Expansion Method by Standard as an Outbound Open Innovation ......................................................... 256
  Manabu Eto, Hitotsubashi University, Japan

Chapter 15
Some Spanish Approaches on Standardization Management: Discussion of the Experiences With University Students and Collaboration With Spanish Industry ....................................................... 276
  María Ana Saenz-Nuño, Comillas Pontifical University, Spain
  Jorge Marcos, Universidad de Vigo, Spain
  María J. Fernández-Pintelos, University of Vigo, Spain
  Javier Sánchez Real, Universidad de Vigo, Spain
  Ana María Mariblanca, Asociación Española de Normalización, Spain

Compilation of References ................................................................................................................................. 295

Related References ........................................................................................................................................ 335

About the Contributors ................................................................................................................................. 358

Index ............................................................................................................................................................. 360