

Globalizing Capital

A History of the International Monetary System

Third Edition

Barry Eichengreen

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY PRESS
PRINCETON AND OXFORD

CONTENTS

- Preface ix
- 1 Introduction 1
- 2 The Gold Standard 5
- Prehistory* 6
- The Dilemmas of Bimetallism* 7
- The Lure of Bimetallism* 11
- The Advent of the Gold Standard* 13
- Shades of Gold* 18
- How the Gold Standard Worked* 22
- The Gold Standard as a Historically Specific Institution* 27
- International Solidarity* 29
- The Gold Standard and the Lender of Last Resort* 32
- Instability at the Periphery* 35
- The Stability of the System* 38
- 3 Interwar Instability 41
- Chronology* 42
- Experience with Floating: The Controversial Case of the Franc* 46
- Reconstructing the Gold Standard* 53
- The New Gold Standard* 56
- Problems of the New Gold Standard* 59
- The Pattern of International Payments* 63
- Responses to the Great Depression* 66
- Banking Crises and Their Management* 69
- Disintegration of the Gold Standard* 71
- Sterling's Crisis* 74
- The Dollar Follows* 79

- Managed Floating* 81
Conclusions 84
- 4 The Bretton Woods System 86
Wartime Planning and Its Consequences 89
The Sterling Crisis and the Realignment of European Currencies 95
The European Payments Union 99
Payments Problems and Selective Controls 101
Convertibility: Problems and Progress 105
Special Drawing Rights 109
Declining Controls and Rising Rigidity 112
The Battle for Sterling 116
The Crisis of the Dollar 119
The Lessons of Bretton Woods 124
- 5 After Bretton Woods 127
Floating Exchange Rates in the 1970s 129
Floating Exchange Rates in the 1980s 135
The Snake 142
The European Monetary System 149
Renewed Impetus for Integration 155
Europe's Crisis 160
Understanding the Crisis 163
The Experience of Developing Countries 169
Conclusions 174
- 6 A Brave New Monetary World 175
The Asian Crisis 181
Emerging Instability 188
Global Imbalances 199
The Euro 207
International Currency Competition 214
- 7 A Decade of Crises 216
From Subprime Crisis to Global Financial Crisis 220
Greece's Crisis 223
The Grexit Option 229
Europe's Crisis 231

Currency Wars 236

China and the International System 238

Digital Future 243

8 Conclusion 247

Glossary 253

References 261

Index 277