Contents

- List of figures vii
- List of tables ix
- List of contributors xi
- Preface xiii

1 Introduction: trade unions under the pressure of European integration. A question of optimism and pessimism? 1
   MARTIN SEELIGER AND JOHANNES KIESS

2 Trade unions in the European crisis: a social movement perspective 27
   DONATELLA DELLA PORTA

3 Comment on della Porta 46
   WOLFGANG STREECK

4 Conceptualising the development of the European political economy from a neo-Gramscian perspective 51
   ANDREAS BIENER AND HANS-JÜRGEN BIELING

5 Self-intimidation: comment on Bieler/Bieling 69
   GEORG VOBRUBA

6 The Europeanisation of wage bargaining coordination 72
   SUSANNE PERNICKA AND VERA GLASSNER

7 The coordination paradox: a comparative political economy perspective on transnational wage coordination 94
   MARTIN HÖPNER

8 Ambiguities of social Europe: political agenda setting among trade unionists from Central and Eastern Europe and Western Europe 100
   MARTIN SEELIGER
9 Comment on Seeliger
GUGLIELMO MEARDI

10 EWC – ineffective bureaucratic body or institutionalising labour regulation at European company level?
LUDGER PRIES

11 The European Works Council – not an effective means against site-competition and multiscalar social fragmentation
STEFANIE HÜRTGEN

12 The road to pan-European codetermination rights: a course that never did run smooth
SARA LAFUENTE HERNÁNDEZ

13 Europe is not the answer: some remarks on the future of worker co-determination in Europe
BENJAMIN WERNER

14 European economic governance, autonomy of collective bargaining and democratic capitalism
DANIEL SEIKEL

15 Going beyond institutional restrictions: conflict as a challenge
JOHANNES KIESS

16 Contention in times of crisis: British and German social actors and the quest of framing capitalism
JOHANNES KIESS

17 Comment on “Contention in times of crisis”
OLIVER NACHTWEY

18 A constant tug of war: neoliberalism and social unrest in (post)-crisis Europe
MADELAINE MOORE AND ANNE ENGELHARDT

19 Social movements or state apparatus?
ROLAND ERNE

Index