Marc Silver
Editor

Confronting Capitalism in the 21st Century

Lessons from Marx’s Capital
CONTENTS

1 Introduction: Confronting Capitalism—Lessons from Marx's Capital
   Marc Silver
   1

Part I  Beginning with Capital

2 Marx's 'Ultimate Aim' in Writing Capital Was...
   Bertell Ollman
   15

3 Marx and Commodity Fetishism: Some Remarks on Method
   Vesa Oittinen
   25

4 Late Marx and the Conception of "Accumulation of Capital"
   Paul Zarembka
   47

Part II  Contending with Value: Money, Price, Temporality, and Space

5 Form Analysis, Space, and Spatial Struggle
   Bernd Belina
   69

vii
6 The Transformation Problem and Value-Form: Methodological Comments
Pertti Honkanen

7 Value Forms and the Structure of the Capitalist System
David Fishman

Part III Financialization, Credit, and Crisis

8 Marx's Musings on Financial Crises: Credit and Crises in the Mid-Nineteenth-Century Gold Standard
Laurence A. Krause

9 Marx on Financial Intermediation: The Promise of Money as Command Over Future Labor
Joseph M. Ricciardi

Part IV Crisis in the 21st Century: Cross-National Evidence

10 The Ambiguous Role of China's Collective Land Ownership Under Global Capitalism
Xiangjing Chen

11 Beyond the "Pink Tide": Dependent Capitalism in Crisis in Argentina and Lessons to Be Learned for Radical Social Change
Mariano Félix

12 The Final Fiction: Madoff Clawback Suits and Their Implications for Capitalism in the Twenty-First Century
Colleen P. Eren
13 Navigating the Scylla and Charybdis of Precarious Work: Through the Storm of Contingency 247
Christian Garland

Part V The Past and Present with an Eye on the Future

14 What If Our Schools Are Working? Base, Superstructure, and Hegemony in Education 269
Alan Singer

15 Demographic Changes, Pension Reforms, and Absolute Surplus Value: Intertemporal Exploitation in Contemporary Capitalism? 281
Marcelo Milan

16 Readings of Capital: A Starting Point for Reinventing Socialist Politics? 311
Ingo Schmidt

Postscript 337

Index 341