CONTENTS

Workers and Margins: Grasping Erasures and Possibilities Within Management Studies 1
Nimruji Jammulamadaka

Part I Conceptual Aspects on Workers and Margins

Skill Formation and Precarious Labour: The Historical Role of the Industrial Training Institutes in India 1950–2018 21
Saikat Maitra and Srabani Maitra

Labour Beyond the Labour Market: Interrogating Marginality 45
Rajesh Bhattacharya

Representations of Worker Marginalization and the Quest for Livelihood Justice 63
Jerome Joseph

Death of the Artisan: An Indigenous View on Marginalization 89
Nimruji Jammulamadaka and Ravindra Sharma
Part II  Being Marginal

The Literary Worlds of Workers: Narratives of Art from the Margins
Srinath Jagannathan and Masoom Suchdeo
113

The Cosmos of a Public Sector Township: Democracy as an Intellectual Culture
Patturaja Selvaraj
135

Marginality and Its Contestations: A Case of Mining Affected in Goa
Rahul Tripathi
157

The Antipower of the Marginalized: A Postcolonial Perspective
Arpita Mathur
175

Occupational Prestige and Informal Work: Women Domestic Workers in India
Anjula Gurtoo
193

Part III  Surviving Marginalisation

Pulling the Marginalized Out of Margins: Role of Mobilization, Collectivization and Livelihood Interventions
G. Krishnamurthi and Jaya Kritika Ojha
217

Getting Marginalized and Surviving
Bharat Patel
245
Leather Artisans-Workers and Global Value Chains: Protecting Autonomy, Enacting Dissent  259
Nimruji Jammulamadaka and Himanshi Rajora

CSOs, Livelihoods, and Margins  285
Ashis Kumar Sahu

Index  301