

Property Rights and Governance in Artisanal and Small-Scale Mining

Critical Approaches

Edited by Chris Huggins

Contents

Citation Information	ix
Notes on Contributors	xi
1. Introduction: Artisanal and small-scale mining: critical approaches to property rights and governance Chris Huggins	1
2. Revisiting the interconnections between research strategies and policy proposals: reflections from the artisanal and small-scale mining sector in Africa Bonnie Campbell	15
3. The politics of artisanal and small-scale mining in Mongolia Pascale Hatcher	34
4. Property rights and large-scale mining: overlapping claims at and around mining sites at the Democratic Republic of Congo and Zambia Sarah Katz-Lavigne	52
5. 'Custom' and fractured 'community': mining, property disputes and law on the platinum belt, South Africa Sonwabile Mnwana	68
6. Disputes over gold mining and dispossession of local afrodescendant communities from the Alto Cauca, Colombia Irene Vélez-Torres	85
7. Different faces of access control in a Congolese gold mine Sara Geenen and Klara Claessens	99
8. Artisanal gold mining in Kejetia (Tongo, Northern Ghana): a three-dimensional perspective Esther van de Camp	117
Index	135