Contents

1. Globalization and the Rise of Mass Education—Introduction
   Gabriele Cappelli and David Mitch

Part I  Global Religious Activity and Schooling

2. Missions, Education and Conversion in Colonial Africa
   Felix Meier zu Selhausen

3. Missionaries in Latin America and Asia: A First Global Mass Education Wave
   Felipe Valencia Caicedo

Part II  Colonial Legacies, Local Elites and Schooling

4. Universal Public Schooling in Colonial Korea and Taiwan
   Sun Go and Ki-Joo Park
5 Development for the Center and Civilization for the Periphery: The First Globalization, Racial Exclusion and Regional School Development in Colombia
Irina España-Eljaiek

Part III Global Migrations and Human Capital Accumulation

6 Brain Drain and Brain Gain in Italy and Ireland in the Age of Mass Migration
Matteo Gomellini and Cormac Ó Gráda

7 The Production of Impoverished but Sophisticated Emigrants: Emigration, Human Capital, and Economic Growth in Sweden
Johannes Westberg

8 Organizations Matter: German Schools and Educational Performance Amid Brazilian Coffee Plantations (1840–1940)
Bruno Gabriel Witzel de Souza

Part IV Global Forces and Institutions in the Era of Mass Education

9 Annexing the World: Education in the USA as Nationalist Policy in a Competitive Global Economy, 1877–1907
Nancy Beadie

10 Risen from the Chaos: The Emergence of Modern Education in China
Pei Gao
11 Globalization and the Rise of Women's Literacy and Primary Education in Iran, from 1880 to the Present Day
David Mitch

Index