Contemporary Co-housing in Europe
Towards Sustainable Cities?

Edited by
Pernilla Hagbert, Henrik Gutzon Larsen, Håkan Thörn and Cathrin Wasshede

Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
LONDON AND NEW YORK
Contents

List of illustrations vii
Acknowledgements viii

Co-housing, sustainable urban development and governance: an introduction 1
HÅKAN THÖRN, HENRIK GUTZON LARSEN, PERNILLA HAGBERT AND CATHRIN WASSHEDE

PART I
Co-housing in context 21
1 Denmark: anti-urbanism and segregation 23
HENRIK GUTZON LARSEN
2 Sweden: in between co-housing and public housing 38
CLAES CALDENBY
3 Hamburg: housing movements and local government 57
DAVID SCHELLER
4 Barcelona: housing crisis and urban activism 74
HENRIK GUTZON LARSEN

PART II
Co-housing as sustainable urban life? 95
5 Autonomy vs. government: consequences for sustainability in co-housing 97
DAVID SCHELLER AND HÅKAN THÖRN
6 Urban activism and co-housing 120
DAVID SCHELLER AND HENRIK GUTZON LARSEN
Contents

7 Doing family in co-housing communities 140
    CATHRIN WASSHEDE

8 The social logic of space: community and detachment 163
    CLAES CALDENBY, PERNILLA HAGBERT AND CATHRIN WASSHEDE

9 Co-housing as a socio-ecologically sustainable alternative? 183
    PERNILLA HAGBERT

Constraints and possibilities for co-housing to address contemporary urban and ecological crises: a conclusion 202
    HÅKAN THÖRN, HENRIK GUTZON LARSEN, PERNILLA HAGBERT AND CATHRIN WASSHEDE

Index 214