Digital Peripheries

The Online Circulation of Audiovisual Content from the Small Market Perspective
Contents

1 Introduction: Theorizing Digital Peripheries .......................... 1
   Petr Szczepanik, Pavel Zahrádka, and Jakub Macek

Part I  On Boundaries and Scales: Reconceptualizing Digital Markets

2 Small, Middle, Test: Rescaling Peripheral Media Markets .... 35
   Ira Wagman

3 On the Boundaries of Digital Markets ................................. 51
   Ramon Lobato

Part II  Regulating Online Boundaries: Territoriality Versus Digital Single Market

4 Territoriality of Copyright Law ........................................... 65
   Radim Polčák

5 Geoblocking: At Odds with the EU Single Market and Consumer Expectations .......................... 81
   Julia Reda

6 The Czech and Slovak Audiovisual Market as a Laboratory Experiment for the Digital Single Market in Europe .......................... 101
   Pavel Zahrádka

Part III  A New Game with Old Players: Distribution Practices in Small and Peripheral Markets

7 Television Distribution in Flanders: Who Takes the Lead and Is Content Always King? .......................... 125
   Tim Raats and Karen Donders
8 Industry Divide: The Interdependence of Traditional Cinematic Distribution and VOD in Poland ........................................... 145
   Marcin Adamczak

9 Channels and Barriers of Cross-Border Online Circulation: Central and Eastern Europe as a Digital Periphery .................. 159
   Petr Szczepanik

10 Digital Film and Television Distribution in Greece: Between Crisis and Opportunity ....................................................... 181
   Lydia Papadimitriou

Part IV The Other Audiences: Convergent Viewership in Small and Peripheral Markets

11 Finding Larger Transnational Media Markets: Media Practices of the Vietnamese Diasporic Community ................................ 201
   Tae-Sik Kim

12 Configurable Culture in Wealthy and Developing Markets: A Comparative Cross-National Perspective ......................... 215
   Aram Sinnreich

13 Structured Film-Viewing Preferences and Practices: A Quantitative Analysis of Hierarchies in Screen and Content Selection Among Young People in Flanders ......................................................... 227
   Aleit Veenstra, Philippe Meers, and Daniël Biltereyst

14 Uses Genres and Media Ensembles: A Conceptual Roadmap for Research of Convergent Audiences ................................. 245
   Jakub Macek

Part V Audiovisual Policy and the Future of Copyright Economy

15 Compensation Systems for Online Use ........................................... 261
   Christian Handke

16 Sync That Tune! The Role of Collective Management of Rights in Film Production and Distribution ................................. 273
   Rudolf Leška

17 Small Country, Complex Film Policy: The Case of the Czech Film Funding System ....................................................... 291
   Petr Bílik