An Institutional History of Italian Economics in the Interwar Period — Volume II

The Economics Profession and Fascist Institutions

Massimo M. Augello • Marco E. L. Guidi • Fabrizio Bientinesi
Editors
Contents

Economic Expertise and Political Militancy Under Fascism: An Introduction
Massimo M. Augello, Marco E. L. Guidi and Fabrizio Bientinesi

From Nationalism to Fascism: Protagonists and Journals
Luca Michelini

Planning and Discussing Corporatism and the “New International Order”
Fabrizio Bientinesi and Marco Cini

“Breaking Down the Ivory Tower”: Economic Culture in the Italian Academies Under Fascism
Rosario Patalano and Marco E. L. Guidi

The Italian Economists as Legislators and Policymakers During the Fascist Regime
Giovanni Pavanelli and Giulia Bianchi
Banks, Firms and Economic Culture: Economists and Research Centres in Interwar Italy
Pier Francesco Asso, Fabio Lavista and Sebastiano Nerozzi

The Diaspora of Italian Economists: Intellectual Migration Between Politics and Racial Laws
Daniela Giaconi

The Purging of Fascist Economists in Post-war Italy
Daniela Giaconi

Italian Economists of the Interwar Period: Academic, Political and Professional Biographies
Massimo M. Augello

Name Index

Subject Index