

Leadership

Practice and Perspectives

Fourth Edition

Kevin Roe

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Detailed contents

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| List of figures  | xv        |
| List of tables   | xvi       |
| Guide to the book  | xvii      |
|    |           |
| Part One The Basic Frameworks                         | 1  |
| .....  |           |
| 1 Introduction  | 3  |
| 1.1 Overview   | 3         |
| 1.2 Different perspectives                                   | 5         |
| 1.3 Part One—overview of different approaches to leadership  | 6         |
| 1.4 Part Two—related themes                                  | 12        |
| Conclusion   | 16        |
| Case Study: The West London Scooter Club                     | 16        |
| 2 Trait theory—description, analysis, and use         | 18 |
| 2.1 Introduction   | 18        |
| 2.2 Evolution of the idea                                    | 19        |
| Case Study: Elizabeth Windsor—Queen Elizabeth II             | 20        |
| 2.3 Traits—a brief outline                                   | 22        |
| 2.4 Traits and leaders                                       | 24        |
| 2.5 The decline of the Great Man trait theory                | 24        |
| 2.6 ‘Derailing’ and the ‘dark side’ of traits                | 26        |
| Case Study: Elon Musk  | 28        |
| 2.7 So where does this leave trait theory and organizations? | 30        |
| Case Study: Tope Awotona                                     | 31        |
| Summary  | 33        |
| Case Study: Narendra Modi                                    | 33        |
| Big Five trait questionnaire                                 | 36        |
| Before you move on . . .                                     | 37        |
| Further reading  | 38        |
| 3 Behavioural models                                  | 39 |
| 3.1 Introduction   | 39        |
| 3.2 Foundation principles                                    | 40        |

|          |  |           |
|----------|--|-----------|
| 3.3      | What are ‘leadership behaviours’?                      | 42        |
|          | Case Study: Emmeline Pankhurst                         | 43        |
|          | Case Study: Napoleon Bonaparte                         | 48        |
| 3.4      | Organizational implications—strengths and weaknesses   | 52        |
|          | Summary  | 56        |
|          | Case Study: The British Post Office Horizon Scandal    | 56        |
|          | Behaviour questionnaire                                | 58        |
|          | Before you move on . . .                               | 59        |
|          | Further reading  | 59        |
| 4 | The style approach to leadership                | 60 |
| 4.1      | Introduction   | 60        |
| 4.2      | Evolution of the approach                              | 61        |
|          | Case Study: Florence Nightingale                       | 62        |
| 4.3      | Organizational culture                                 | 64        |
| 4.4      | Widening the choice                                    | 65        |
| 4.5      | Factors affecting style                                | 68        |
|          | Case Study: Katharine Birbalsingh                      | 68        |
| 4.6      | Style approach—strengths and weaknesses                | 75        |
|          | Summary  | 76        |
|          | Case Study: Wat Tyler and The Peasant’s Revolt         | 76        |
|          | Style questionnaire                                    | 77        |
|          | Before you move on . . .                               | 79        |
|          | Further reading  | 79        |
| 5 | Situational and contingent leadership           | 80 |
| 5.1      | Introduction   | 80        |
| 5.2      | Early development                                      | 81        |
| 5.3      | Further early developments                             | 82        |
| 5.4      | Hersey and Blanchard’s life cycle theory of leadership | 84        |
|          | Case Study: Primary school teacher                     | 89        |
| 5.5      | Path-Goal theory                                       | 91        |
| 5.6      | Fiedler’s contingency theory                           | 94        |
| 5.7      | Leadership substitutes theory                          | 99        |
|          | Summary  | 102       |
|          | Case Study: The Expletives                             | 103       |
|          | Situational leadership questionnaire                   | 104       |
|          | Before you move on . . .                               | 106       |
|          | Further reading  | 107       |

|          |  |     |
|----------|--|-----|
| 6 | Charisma and transformational leadership    | 108 |
| 6.1      | Introduction                                       | 108 |
| 6.2      | Charisma   | 108 |
|          | Case Study: Muhammad Ali                           | 110 |
| 6.3      | House and Shamir: Self-concept theory              | 112 |
| 6.4      | Attribution theory                                 | 113 |
|          | Case Study: PewDiePie                              | 116 |
| 6.5      | Characteristics of charismatic leaders             | 117 |
| 6.6      | Context and crisis                                 | 120 |
| 6.7      | Negative aspects of charisma                       | 121 |
|          | Case Study: Walt Disney                            | 122 |
| 6.8      | Transformational leadership                        | 123 |
|          | Summary  | 126 |
|          | Case Study: Elvis Presley                          | 127 |
|          | Transformational leadership—develop your charisma  | 128 |
|          | Before you move on . . .                           | 130 |
|          | Further reading                                    | 130 |
| 7 | Authentic leadership                        | 131 |
| 7.1      | Introduction                                       | 131 |
| 7.2      | Background   | 132 |
| 7.3      | Defining authentic leadership                      | 133 |
|          | Case Study: Cadbury and Rowntree                   | 134 |
| 7.4      | Academic approach                                  | 135 |
|          | Case Study: Siya Kolisi                            | 138 |
| 7.5      | Practitioner approach                              | 139 |
|          | Case Study: Richard Reed and innocent              | 141 |
| 7.6      | Pseudo-authenticity                                | 143 |
|          | Summary  | 144 |
|          | Case Study: Sir Tim Martin                         | 145 |
|          | Authentic leadership self-assessment questionnaire | 146 |
|          | Before you move on . . .                           | 148 |
|          | Further reading                                    | 148 |
| 8 | Follower-ship                               | 149 |
| 8.1      | Introduction                                       | 149 |
| 8.2      | Background   | 150 |
|          | Case Study: Mutiny on HMS Bounty            | 150 |
| 8.3      | Attributes of followers                            | 152 |
| 8.4      | Leader-member exchange theory (LMX)                | 155 |

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| Case Study: The Godfather                           | 158        |
| 8.5 Attributes of followers and leaders                    | 159        |
| Summary  | 161        |
| Case Study: Operation Dynamo and the evacuation of Dunkirk | 162        |
| Discussion themes  | 163        |
| Follower quiz  | 163        |
| Before you move on . . .                                   | 165        |
| Further reading  | 165        |
|    |            |
| PART TWO Related Themes                             | 167 |
| .....  |            |
| 9 Psychodynamic approaches to leadership            | 169 |
| 9.1 Introduction   | 169        |
| 9.2 Freud, Jung, and personality                           | 170        |
| 9.3 Myers-Briggs Type Indicator                            | 171        |
| Case Study: Schoolteacher                                  | 175        |
| Case Study: Paul Kagame                                    | 176        |
| 9.4 Neuro-linguistic programming                           | 178        |
| 9.5 Criticism of the psychodynamic approach                | 182        |
| Summary  | 183        |
| Case Study: Donald Trump                                   | 183        |
| Before you move on . . .                                   | 184        |
| Further reading  | 185        |
|    |            |
| 10 Emotional intelligence                           | 186 |
| 10.1 Introduction  | 186        |
| 10.2 The architecture of the brain                         | 187        |
| 10.3 The nature of intelligence                            | 190        |
| Case Study: Volodymyr Zelenskyy                            | 192        |
| 10.4 What is EI?   | 193        |
| 10.5 Goleman's approach                                    | 195        |
| 10.6 Other perspectives                                    | 197        |
| Case Study: Malala Yousafzai                               | 197        |
| Case Study: Tracey Emin                                    | 199        |
| 10.7 The 'dark side' of EI                                 | 200        |
| 10.8 Criticisms of EI                                      | 201        |
| Summary  | 202        |
| Case Study: SZA  | 202        |

DETAILED CONTENTS

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| Before you move on . . .                     | 204        |
| Further reading                              | 204        |
| 11 Ethical leadership                 | 205 |
| 11.1 Introduction                            | 205        |
| 11.2 What are ethics?                        | 206        |
| 11.3 Basic ethical frameworks                | 206        |
| Case Study: The Watergate Scandal            | 210        |
| 11.4 Leadership and moral development        | 211        |
| Case Study: Greta Thunberg and Just Stop Oil | 214        |
| 11.5 What is an 'ethical leader'?            | 217        |
| 11.6 Why do leaders not act ethically?       | 218        |
| 11.7 Whistle-blowing                         | 219        |
| Summary                                      | 221        |
| Case Study: Ferdinand Porsche                | 222        |
| Observed Leader Ethic Test                   | 223        |
| Before you move on . . .                     | 224        |
| Further reading                              | 225        |
| 12 Diversity and leadership           | 226 |
| 12.1 Introduction                            | 226        |
| 12.2 What is 'the issue'?                    | 227        |
| 12.3 What is 'diversity'?                    | 228        |
| 12.4 Social identity theory                  | 229        |
| Case Study: Megan Rapinoe                    | 231        |
| 12.5 Leadership and gender                   | 233        |
| Case Study: Caster Semenya                   | 236        |
| 12.6 Androgyny                               | 238        |
| 12.7 Intersectionality                       | 239        |
| 12.8 The concept of bias                     | 240        |
| 12.9 Ageism                                  | 241        |
| 12.10 Diversity and culture                  | 242        |
| Summary                                      | 244        |
| Case Study: Baroness Tanni Grey-Thompson DBE | 244        |
| Before you move on . . .                     | 245        |
| Further reading                              | 246        |
| 13 Power, influence, and authority    | 247 |
| 13.1 Introduction                            | 247        |
| 13.2 What is 'power'?                        | 248        |
| 13.3 Dimensions of power                     | 249        |

|           |  |     |
|-----------|--|-----|
| 13.4      | Sources of power   | 251 |
|           | Case Study: Willie Mays  | 254 |
|           | Case Study: David Attenborough                                       | 257 |
| 13.5      | The dark side of power   | 258 |
|           | Summary  | 261 |
|           | Case Study: Taylor Swift   | 262 |
|           | Before you move on . . .   | 263 |
|           | Further reading  | 264 |
| 14 | Leadership and teams  | 265 |
| 14.1      | Introduction   | 265 |
| 14.2      | The broader historical aspects and the evolution of the organization | 266 |
| 14.3      | The changing environment   | 266 |
| 14.4      | Academic research—different perspectives                             | 268 |
| 14.5      | Complexity strikes   | 269 |
| 14.6      | When is a team not a team?   | 269 |
|           | Case Study: Jim Lovell and Apollo 13                                 | 270 |
| 14.7      | Team models theories   | 272 |
| 14.8      | Normative team models  | 272 |
| 14.9      | Descriptive team models  | 274 |
| 14.10     | Individual role models—Belbin's approach                             | 274 |
| 14.11     | Margerison–McCann team management wheel                              | 276 |
|           | Case Study: HMS Brilliant's control room                      | 278 |
| 14.12     | Time or phase-based models   | 279 |
| 14.13     | Team mental model  | 281 |
| 14.14     | Distributed leadership   | 284 |
| 14.15     | The downside of teams  | 286 |
|           | Summary  | 287 |
|           | Case Study: Accident and emergency department                        | 288 |
|           | Before you move on . . .   | 289 |
|           | Further reading  | 290 |
| 15 | Leadership and change   | 291 |
| 15.1      | Introduction   | 291 |
| 15.2      | History of change  | 291 |
| 15.3      | Vision   | 293 |
| 15.4      | Different approaches to change                                       | 295 |
|           | Case Study: Sweden—a 'Big Bang' approach to change                   | 297 |
|           | Case Study: Mary Kay Ash   | 300 |
| 15.5      | Models of the change process   | 301 |

DETAILED CONTENTS

|           |   |            |
|-----------|---|------------|
| 15.6      | Individual reaction to change                                     | 303        |
| 15.7      | Politics of change  | 304        |
|           | Summary   | 306        |
|           | Case Study: The National Health Service (NHS)                     | 307        |
|           | Before you move on . . .  | 309        |
|           | Further reading   | 310        |
| 16 | Leadership development                                     | 311 |
| 16.1      | Introduction  | 311        |
| 16.2      | What is leadership development?                                   | 311        |
| 16.3      | Complexity  | 312        |
| 16.4      | Why bother?   | 313        |
|           | Case Study: Chartered Management Institute (CMI) and Anne Francke | 316        |
| 16.5      | Organizational factors  | 317        |
| 16.6      | Leadership and competencies                                       | 320        |
|           | Case Study: Modern Apprenticeships                                | 323        |
| 16.7      | How are leaders developed?  | 325        |
|           | Summary   | 327        |
|           | Case Study: De Montfort University                                | 328        |
|           | Before you move on . . .  | 329        |
|           | Further reading   | 329        |
| 17 | Strategic leadership                                       | 330 |
| 17.1      | Introduction  | 330        |
| 17.2      | What is 'strategic leadership'?                                   | 330        |
| 17.3      | Do we need strategic leaders?                                     | 331        |
|           | Case Study: Hannibal  | 332        |
| 17.4      | The modern environment  | 334        |
| 17.5      | What does a strategic leader 'do'?                                | 335        |
|           | Case Study: Ursula von der Leyen and the European Union           | 342        |
|           | Summary   | 343        |
|           | Case Study: Sir Keir Starmer                                      | 344        |
|           | Before you move on . . .  | 345        |
|           | Further reading   | 345        |
|           | Bibliography  | 347        |
|           | Index   | 369        |