

— A —
FINANCIAL HISTORY

— of —

MODERN U.S.
CORPORATE SCANDALS

— From —

Enron to Reform

JERRY W. MARKHAM

M.E. Sharpe
Armonk, New York
London, England

722680139

Contents

Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction	xv
Photographs follow page 302

I. The Stock Market Bubble and Enron

1. The Stock Market Bubble 3

Financial Markets 3 • The Market Boom 3 • Raising All Boats 4 • Run-Up in IPO Prices 5 • Structured Finance 7 • Collateralized Debt Obligations 8 • New Instruments 9 • Commodities Futures Modernization 11 • Traditional Markets 13 • Electronic Communications Networks 15 • Broker-Dealers 17 • Merger Activity 20

Fraud and Abuses 21 • Fraud Schemes 21 • Ponzi Schemes 23 • Electronic Fraud 25 • Pump and Dump Schemes 27 • Other Problems 29 • Executive Compensation 30 • Expensing Options 33

Attacks on the Markets 34 • The First Attack 34 • The Market Reacts 35 • The Fed Reverses Course 37 • Economic Decline 37 • The Damage Is Done 39 • Deficits and International Problems 40 • Prelude to September 11 42 • The 9/11 Attack 42 • Restarting Wall Street 44 • Coping With Terror 46

2. The Enron Corp. 49

A Company Is Born 49 • Creating a Name 49 • Enron's Management 50 • Jeffrey Skilling 51 • Andrew Fastow 52 • Enron Values 53 • Pipeline Operations 54 • Deregulation 54 • Trading Operations 55 • Mark-to-Market 57 • Wind Farms 59 • Foreign Operations 59 • Foreign Problems 60

Enron Growth 61 • Enron Online 61 • Electricity Market 62 • Broadband 63 • Merchant Investments 65 • Financial Results 65 • Fancy Finance 66 • Halcyon Days 67 • An Icon 68 • Special Purpose Entities 70 • Securitizing the Balance Sheet 70 • Cactus and JEDI 72 • Beneath the Mask 75

Enron Fails 75 • The Death Spiral 75 • Sherron Watkins 76 • Accounting Disclosures 78 • LJM 79 • New Power Company 80 • Implosion 82 • Chewco 83 • Whitewing 84 • Influence Fails 85 • Death Throes 87 • Bankruptcy 87 • The Powers Report 88 • Media Circus 91 • Congressional Hearings • 93

3. The Enron Scandal

95

Enron Finance 95 • The SPEs 95 • Debt and Equity 96 • Nikita, Backbone, and Others 98 • Blockbuster 99 • Business Model and Disclosure 99 • Executive Bonuses and Stock Sales 101 • Employee Losses 102 • Lockdown 104 • Other 401(k) Problems 106

Prosecution of Enron Executives 108 • Other Abuses 108 • Andrew Fastow 109 • Extorting a Guilty Plea 112 • Lea Fastow 112 • Other Defendants 114 • Kenneth Lay 115 • Jeffrey Skilling 118

Bank Involvement 119 • Prepaid Forward Transactions 119 • The Prepays 120 • The Sureties 122 • Citigroup 123 • Liability of Financial Institutions 125 • Merrill Lynch 126 • Other Institutions 127

California Trading Scandals 129 • California Deregulates 129 • Flawed System 131 • Enron Games the Market 133 • Crimes and Investigations 136 • Round-Trip Trades 137

II. Full Disclosure and the Accountants

4. Full Disclosure

143

Full Disclosure Background 143 • Disclosure History 143 • The Panic of 1907 146 • Federal Actions 146 • Blue-Sky Laws 147 • The Stock Market Crash of 1929 148 • Franklin D. Roosevelt 149 • Laying the Groundwork for Full Disclosure 151 • The Securities Act of 1933 153 • The Securities Exchange Act of 1934 156

The Accountants as Gatekeepers 158 • Disclosure Requirements 158 • FASB 160 • Certification 161 • Early Accounting History 161 • Accounting in Great Britain 163 • British Accountants Move to America 165 • Homegrown Accounting 166 • Licensing Accountants 168 • Accountants' Liability 169 • Accounting Shortcomings 170 • Accounting Problems Spread 173 • Flaws in Full Disclosure 174

Accounting Reform Efforts 175 • The Metcalf Report 175 • The Cohen Committee 177 • The Treadway Commission 178 • Financial Scandals Embroil the Accountants 180 • S&L Crisis 182 • Other Audit Failures 185 • Liabilities Mount 186 • The Independence Controversy 189 • Other Consulting Issues 192 • Accountants as Policemen 194 • The LLPs 195

5. Arthur Andersen and Other Scandals

197

Arthur Andersen & Co. 197 • Background 197 • Early Years 197 • Andersen Audit Problems 199 • Andersen's Problems Mount 201 • Accenture 204 • Enron Erupts 205 • The Indictment of Arthur Andersen 206 • The Trial of Arthur Andersen 207 • Conviction 210

Full Disclosure Fails 212 • SEC Role 212 • Accrual Versus Cash Accounting 213 • Secret Reserves 216 • Cookie Jar Reserves 217 • Channel Stuffing 218 • Statement of Cash Flows 220 • Pro Forma Results 221 • Rite Aid 221 • Computer Associates 222 • Xerox 223 • Critical Path and Others 224 • Still More Problems 229 • Round Trips 231 • Kmart 234

The Tyco Scandal 235 • The Growing of Tyco 235 • Tyco Business 235 • Tyco's Problems Emerge 236 • Tyco's Problems Grow 237 • The Scandal Begins 238 • The Scandal Broadens 239 • Kozlowski's Indictment 240 • Restructuring 241 • The Trial 242 • Belnick's Trial 244

6. Fiduciary Duties and Corporate Governance Principles

246

Corporate Governance 246 • Joint Stock Companies 246 • Early Corporate Governance Concerns 248 • Charter Wars 249 • General Incorporation Laws 251 • Modern Corporate Law 253 • Delaware and the Model Business Act 254 • The Board of Directors 256 • Outside Directors 257 • More Board Reforms 262 • Corporate Officers 264 • Shareholder Responsibilities 265 • Shareholder Rights 266 • Shareholder Voting 267 • Proxy Votes 270 • Proxy Fights 271 • SEC Proxy Regulation 273

Fiduciary Duties 277 • Trustees 277 • The Business Judgment Rule 278 • Fiduciary Duty of Care 280 • Delaware Duty of Care 281 • The Fiduciary Duty of Loyalty 285 • Executive Compensation 288 • Close Corporations 289 • New Business Structures 292

More Fiduciary Duties 293 • Fiduciary Duties of Controlling Shareholders 293 • Derivative Suits 294 • Fiduciary Duties Redux 296 • Back to Delaware 299 • Delaware Excesses 301 • For Whom Does Management Manage? 302 • Social Responsibility 305 • The Contractarians 306

III. Full Disclosure Fails

7. Telecoms and WorldCom

311

Telecommunications 311 • Meltdown 311 • Nortel 312 • Lucent 314 • Qwest 316 • Other Telecom Troubles 319 • Global Crossing 320 • Accounting Manipulations 321 • Bankruptcy 323 • Accounting Failures 324 • Reorganization 324 • Adelphia 325 • Internal Investigation 327 • Criminal Charges 328

WorldCom 330 • The Company 330 • MCI 332 • WorldCom Accounting 333 • Bernard Ebbers 334 • Scott Sullivan 335 • Free Fall 335 • Internal Investigations 338 • Corporate Monitor 341 • Breeden's World 341 • Like Enron 344 • Litigation 348 • Criminal and Other Charges 348 • Ebbers's Indictment 351 • More Problems 354

Accounting Problems in the Entertainment Industry and Elsewhere 354 • AOL Time Warner 354 • Goodwill 355 • Cooking the Books 356 • Accounting Problems Expand 357 • Vivendi 358 • Vivendi Problems 359 • HealthSouth 360 • Freddie Mac and Fannie Mae 364 • Lord Black 368 • Grocery Store Accounting 372

8. Analysts and Insider Trading Scandals

377

The Martha Stewart Case 377 • History of Insider Trading 377 • SEC Creates a Crime 378 • The Supreme Court Responds 380 • Tippers and Tippees 381 • Insider Trading Scandals 382 • Insider Trading Legislation 385 • More Insider Trading Issues 386 • Insider Trading Continues 387 • ImClone 389 • Martha Stewart 391 • Martha Stewart's Crime 393 • The Stewart Circus Begins 394 • The Government's Case 395 • Aftermath 398

Analysts' Scandals 400 • The Role of the Analyst 400 • Supervising the Analyst 401 • Market Solution 402 • Regulation FD 403 • Stock Touts 405 • Conflicts Grow 406 • Citigroup 407 • IPO Abuses 410 • Frank Quattrone 412 • Analysts' Settlement 416 • Congressional Hearings 420

Mutual Fund Scandals 421 • Some History 421 • Investment Company Act of 1940 422 • Mutual Funds 423 • Scandals and Abuses 423 • Mutual Fund Investment 424 • Market Timing 425 • Competition 426 • Spitzer's Charges 427 • The Problem Spreads 430 • More Disclosures 432 • Other Mutual Fund Issues 434 • Variable Annuities 437 • One More Media Event 438 • Hedge Funds 439

Sarbanes-Oxley 443 • Arthur Levitt 443 • A New Chairman Arrives 444 • Election Issues 447 • Sarbanes-Oxley Is Enacted 449 • PCAOB 451 • More Regulation 455 • Attack of the Law Professors 457 • Disciplinary Proceedings 458 • ABA Response 459 • S&L Problems 460 • Legislation 461 • Role of the Rating Agency 462 • Some History 463 • Expansion of the Rating Agency's Role 464

Sarbanes-Oxley Is No Panacea 467 • More Costs 467 • Executive Compensation 469 • Options Again 470 • The List Grows 472 • More Audit Failures 477 • Travel and Taxes 479 • Executive Issues 482

More Fraud 484 • Pump and Dump Schemes 484 • Ponzi Schemes 487 • Other Scandals 490 • Fraud Abroad 494

Scandal at the New York Stock Exchange 498 • Richard Grasso 498 • NYSE Problems 501 • Spitzer Again 506

IV. Recovery and Reform

The Economy 521 • Demographic Changes and Finance 521 • Economic Conditions 523 • Raising Capital 525 • Infectious Greed 527 • Mixed Signals 528 • Japanese Operations 529 • Banking and Insurance 529 • Reparations for Slavery 532 • Stock Market Reaction 533

The New Year—2003 536 • Taxes 536 • Trading Places 538 • More on the Market 542 • Retirement Concerns 543 • Social Security 544 • Housing Market and Millionaires 546 • Financial Services 547 • Financing Resumes 549

Banking 551 • Credit Cards 551 • Banking Consolidation 552 • Banking Problems 556 • Money 557

The Year 2004 558 • The Recovery Strengthens 558 • Market Activities 560 • Politics and the Economy 561 • Wealth 562 • Big Business 563 • Quarterly Results 564 • More Growth 565 • More Fraud 573 • Full Disclosure Continues to Fail 575 • Another Enron? 577 • Market Development 582 • Enron Continues 586 • More Problems 590

The Myths of Full Disclosure 596 • Reforms and Power 596 • Full Disclosure 597 • Myth Revealed 598 • Accountants as Bloodhounds 600 • Auditor Liability 602 • Accountants Work for Management 603 • The Perfect Storm 604 • Pre-Full Disclosure Finance 606 • Another Myth 606 • Still Another Myth 609 • Attacks on Business 610

The SEC Fails 612 • Fraud Before the SEC 612 • The American Ice Company 613 • Other Pre-SEC Scandals 616 • On the SEC's Watch 617 • Accounting Scandals New and Old 621 • Prosecutions 623 • Attorney General Wolf Packs 629 • Private Securities Litigation 633 • PSLRA 636 • Pension Funds as Managers 638 • Calpers Governance 644

Repealing the Federal Securities Laws 647 • The Securities Laws 647 • Manipulation 651 • Mulheren's Prosecution 652 • CFTC 653 • Market Discipline 654 • Disclosure in a Free Market 655 • Commodity Model 658 • Insider Trading 658 • Labeling versus Full Disclosure 659

Conclusion	661
Notes	665
Selected Bibliography	677
Name Index	693
Subject Index	733
About the Author	743