

Guarding the Golden Door

AMERICAN IMMIGRATION POLICY

AND IMMIGRANTS SINCE 1882

Roger Daniels

 HILL AND WANG

A DIVISION OF FARRAR, STRAUS AND GIROUX

NEW YORK

Contents

List of Tables and Charts • ix

Acknowledgments • xi

Part I: The Golden Door Closes and Opens, 1882–1965

1. The Beginnings of Immigration Restriction, 1882–1917 • 3

2. The 1920s: The Triumph of the Old Nativism • 27

3. No New Deal for Immigration • 59

4. World War II and After: The Barriers Begin to Drop • 81

5. Admitting Displaced Persons: 1946–1950 • 98

6. The Cold War and Immigration • 113

7. Lyndon Johnson and the End of the Quota System • 129

Part II: Changing Patterns in a Changing World, 1965–2001

8. Immigrants from Other Worlds: Asians • 147

9. Immigrants from Other Worlds: Latinos • 175

10. Refugees and Human Rights: Cubans, Southeast Asians, and Others • 190

11. Immigration Reform: Myths and Realities • 219

12. “Controlling Our Borders”: Struggles over Immigration Policy • 232

Epilogue: Immigration After 9/11 • 261

Notes • 269

Bibliography • 301

Index • 317