Bangladesh PRSP Forum Economic Update
Recent Developments and Future Perspectives

Bangladesh Development Series, paper no. 1

The World Bank Office, Dhaka

November 2005

www.worldbank.org.bd/bds

Document of the World Bank
TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. THE COUNTRY CONTEXT

  Bangladesh: Some impressive and sustained socio-economic trends – which outperform many South Asian and other developing countries ............................................................... 1
  Formidable challenges remain, notably on governance issues .................................................. 1
  Small, incremental reforms support positive outcomes .......................................................... 2

II. RECENT ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENTS .............................................................. 5

  Economic growth remains robust ......................................................................................... 5
  Potential macroeconomic risks ......................................................................................... 6
  Fiscal management continues to be prudent ......................................................................... 7
  The FY06 Budget ..................................................................................................................... 7
  Monetary expansion is consistent with growth and inflation targets thus far ......................... 8
  Balance of payments experiences some pressure ................................................................... 9
  Inflation continues to creep up ............................................................................................. 11
  Overall macroeconomic status remains healthy, with latent pressures ............................... 11

III. PROGRESS ON THE GOVERNANCE AGENDA ............................................. 11

  A. STRENGTHENING CORE GOVERNANCE ......................................................... 12
     Improving Transparency and Efficiency of Public Expenditure - Financial Management ..... 12
     Toward a More Responsive and Efficient Public Administration ....................................... 15
     Strengthening and Modernizing Revenue Mobilization ....................................................... 15
     Establishing and Operationalizing an Independent Anti-Corruption Commission .......... 16
     Reforming the Civil Justice System .................................................................................... 16
  B. REDUCING SECTORAL GOVERNANCE IMPEDIMENTS TO IMPROVE INVESTMENT CLIMATE ............................................................................................................. 17
     Ensuring Continued Macroeconomic Stability ................................................................... 17
     Reducing Opportunities for Corruption by Reducing and Streamlining Trade Restrictions ... 17
     Streamlining and Reducing Scope for Discretion in the Regulatory Environment .............. 18
     Improving Financial Sector Accountability, Transparency, and Performance .................... 19
     Reducing State Role in State-owned Enterprises and Strengthening Their Financial Performance .............................................................................................................. 20
     Addressing Governance Constraints to Infrastructure: Power, Energy, and Transport ........ 20
  C. EMPOWERING THE POOR .............................................................................. 23
     Improving Governance of Social Service Delivery .............................................................. 23
  D. OVERALL STATUS OF POLICY REFORMS .................................................. 26

IV. IMPLEMENTING THE PRSP AND BEYOND ..................................................... 27

  A. THE GOVERNMENT’S POVERTY REDUCTION STRATEGY ............................... 27
  B. PRELIMINARY PRSP IMPLEMENTATION MEASURES ....................................... 28
     Operationalizing the PRSP via a Medium Term Expenditure Framework (MTEF) .............. 28
     Monitoring and Evaluation ................................................................................................. 28
  C. DEVELOPMENT CHALLENGES AHEAD ........................................................... 29

V. A SPECIAL FOCUS ON BANGLADESH’S EXPORT GROWTH AND COMPETITIVENESS ..... 30

  The real costs to export competitiveness ................................................................................. 30
  Strategy for Sustained Economic Growth and Export Competitiveness ............................... 32
TABLE OF TABLES:

Table 1: Selected World Development Indicators................................................................. 2
Table 2: Reforms in Sector and Core Governance and their Impact........................................ 12
Table 3: Non-performing loans (NPLs) as percentage of GDP............................................... 19
Table 4: Bangladesh Power Sector Performance Indicators.................................................... 22
Table 5: Recommended Actions for Improving Bangladesh’s Transport and Trade Logistics...... 33

TABLE OF BOXES:

Box 1: A Mixed Record of Governance................................................................................. 3
Box 2: Is Bangladesh on track to meet the MDGs in 2015?................................................... 4
Box 3: Policy Support for Textiles and RMG in the Post-MFA Era......................................... 34

TABLE OF FIGURES:

Figure 1: Real GDP Growth & Annual Average Inflation....................................................... 5
Figure 2: Revenue, Expenditure & Fiscal Deficit...................................................................... 8
Figure 3: Average Monthly Interbank Rate............................................................................ 8
Figure 4: Export Growth......................................................................................................... 10
Figure 5: Gross Foreign Exchange Reserves.......................................................................... 10
Figure 6: Annual Losses of Manufacturing State-Owned Enterprises.................................... 21

ANNEXES.......................................................................................................................... 36