

846 392 M9

The Global Assault on Teaching,
Teachers, and their Unions

Contents

List of Vignettes	xi
Acknowledgments	xv
Part I	Neoliberalism, Teachers, and Teaching: Understanding the Assault
1	The Global Assault on Teaching, Teachers, and Teacher Unions Mary Compton and Lois Weiner	3
2	“Remaking the World”: Neoliberalism and the Transformation of Education and Teachers’ Labor Susan L. Robertson	11
Part II	Neoliberalism’s Global Footprint
3	Education Reform under Strangulation John Nyambe	31
4	Teaching for the Factory: Neoliberalism in Mexican Education Rodolfo Rincones, Elaine Hampton, and Cesar Silva	37
5	Neoliberal Education in Denmark Jette Steensen	43
6	Higher and Tertiary Education in the West Indies: Ensnared by GATS Marguerite Cummins Williams	47
7	The Education World Is Not Flat: Neoliberalism’s Global Project and Teacher Unions’ Transnational Resistance Larry Kuehn	53
Part III	The Need for Unions to Defend Public Education
8	Teachers and their Unions: Why Social Class “Counts” Kathleen A. Murphey	75

9	Campaign against the Opening of City Academies in England Ian Murch	81
10	An Inner-City Public School Teacher's Story from China Yihuai Cai	89
11	What Teachers Want from their Unions: What We Know from Research Nina Bascia	95
12	Challenging Neoliberalism: Education Unions in Australia Rob Durbridge	109
Part IV	Teaching, a Profession under Attack
13	Contradictions and Tensions in the Place of Teachers in Educational Reform: Reflections upon the Role of Teachers in Recent Educational Reforms in the United States and Namibia Ken Zeichner	125
14	Universalization of Elementary Education in India: A Dream Deferred Is a Dream Denied Basanti Chakraoborty	143
15	Educational Restructuring, Democratic Education, and Teachers Álvaro Moreira Hypolito	149
Part V	Neoliberalism, Inequality, and Teacher Unions
16	Sodexo in the Chicago Public Schools Kyle Westbrook	163
17	Homophobia in St. Lucian Schools: A Perspective from a Select Group of Teachers Urban Dolor	169
18	Work on Aboriginal Education in a Social Justice Union: Reflections from the Inside Chris Stewart	173
19	South African Teachers and Social Movements: Old and New Shermain Mannah and Jon Lewis	177
20	Schooling and Class in Germany: An Interview with Eberhardt Brand and Susanne Gondermann Mary Compton	193

21	Education or Mind Infection? Nurit Peled-Elhanan	199
Part VI	Going on the Offensive
22	Interview with Thulas Nxesi, President of Education International Mary Compton	211
23	The Context of Teachers' Democratic Movements in Mexico Rodolfo Rincones	217
24	In Mexico, to Defend Education as a Social Right, We Must Fight for Union Democracy María de la Luz Arriaga Lemus	221
25	A History of the Search for Teacher Unity in South Africa Harold Samuel	227
26	British Teacher Unions and the Blair Government: Anatomy of an Abusive Relationship Mary Compton	237
27	Building the International Movement We Need: Why a Consistent Defense of Democracy and Equality Is Essential Lois Weiner	251
	About the Authors	269
	Index	273