

THE PERFECT STORM
THE POLITICAL ECONOMY
OF THE FISCHLER REFORMS
OF THE COMMON AGRICULTURAL POLICY

JOHAN F.M. SWINNEN (EDITOR)

CENTRE FOR EUROPEAN POLICY STUDIES
BRUSSELS

CONTENTS

Preface & Acknowledgements.....	i
1. Introduction.....	1
Johan F.M. Swinnen
Part 1. Theory
2. Impact of External Changes and the European Commission on CAP Reforms: Insights from Theory	9
Jan Pokrivcak, Christophe Crombez & Johan F.W. Swinnen
3. Institutional Reform and Agricultural Policy Reform in the EU.....	25
Christophe Crombez
4. EU Enlargement: Driver of or Obstacle to Future CAP Reforms?	41
Christian H.C.A. Henning
Part 2. Empirical Analyses
5. External Influences on CAP Reforms: An Historical Perspective	57
Tim Josling
6. The Internal and External Forces Driving CAP Reforms	76
Rolf Moehler
7. Constraints and Causes of the 2003 EU Agricultural Policy Reforms	83
Alessandro Olper
8. An Inside Perspective on the Political Economy of the Fischler Reforms.....	102
Corrado Pirzio-Biroli
9. An Uncommon Policy: Theoretical and Empirical Notes on Elite Decision-Making during the 2003 CAP Reforms	115
Barbara Syrrakos
Part 3. Conclusions and Implications
10. The Political Economy of the Fischler Reforms of the EU's Common Agricultural Policy: The Perfect Storm?	135
Johan F.M. Swinnen
11. Implications for Future Reforms	167
Wyn Grant
Glossary	179
Contributors	180