List of Symbols.....	XXVII
1 Introduction.....	1
1.1 Relevance and problem formulation.....	1
1.2 Structure of the thesis	8
2 Conceptual preparations	11
2.1 Definition and calculation of the MRP	11
2.2 Basics of asset return calculations	12
2.2.1 Return calculations	12
2.2.2 Selected marginal return distributions	15
2.2.3 Basic properties for historical return series.....	16
2.2.3.1 Autocorrelation	18
2.2.3.2 Dependence on relative prices	20
2.2.3.3 Stationarity.....	23
2.3 Expected MRP and valuation under uncertainty	26
2.3.1 Risk-adjusted discount rates based on implied cost of capital.....	27
2.3.2 Risk-adjusted discount rates based on the CAPM	31
2.4 Expected MRP and the risk-free rate	39
2.4.1 Concepts of risk-free rate specifications in valuation models.....	40
2.4.1.1 Variable risk-free rate approaches.....	41
2.4.1.2 Uniform risk-free rate approaches	47
2.4.2 Reality on risk-free rate specifications in valuation models	48
2.4.3 General risk-free rate specifications for this study.....	49
2.4.4 Return components of the ex-post risk-free rate	50
2.5 Expected MRP and currencies.....	52
2.6 Expected MRP and inflation.....	53
2.7 Expected MRP and personal taxes.....	56
2.7.1 Risk-adjusted discount rates based on the implied cost of capital method	57

2.7.2	Risk-adjusted discount rates based on the Tax-CAPM.....	59
2.7.3	Irrelevance of personal taxation under the Tax-CAPM.....	64
2.7.4	Implications for the expected MRP estimation.....	67
2.8	Conclusions.....	68
3	Description and performance of country indices.....	71
3.1	Germany.....	72
3.1.1	Description of the equity index – CDAX.....	72
3.1.2	Description of the government bond index – REX.....	75
3.1.3	Performance during the analysis period.....	76
3.2	Canada.....	79
3.2.1	Description of the equity index – S&P/TSX Composite.....	79
3.2.2	Description of the government bond index – Datastream benchmark index.....	81
3.2.3	Performance during the analysis period.....	82
3.3	France.....	85
3.3.1	Description of the equity index – CAC AllShares/40.....	85
3.3.2	Performance during the analysis period.....	86
3.4	Japan.....	89
3.4.1	Description of the equity index – TOPIX.....	89
3.4.2	Performance during the analysis period.....	91
3.5	United Kingdom.....	94
3.5.1	Description of the equity index – FTSE All-Share.....	94
3.5.2	Performance during the analysis period.....	96
3.6	United States.....	99
3.6.1	Description of the equity index – Russell 3000.....	99
3.6.2	Performance during the analysis period.....	101
3.7	Selected limitations in cross-country comparisons.....	104
3.8	Conclusions.....	107
4	Expected MRP estimation based on averages of ex-post returns.....	109
4.1	Discussion of results.....	110
4.2	Comparison of historical MRPs between countries.....	114
4.2.1	Comparison of unconditional averages.....	114
4.2.2	Comparison of cross-country correlation.....	116
4.3	Issues of historical MRP averages.....	118
4.3.1	Averaging methodology.....	118

4.3.1.1	Distribution parameter certainty	121
4.3.1.2	Distribution parameter uncertainty – i.i.d. normal returns	125
4.3.1.3	Distribution parameter uncertainty – i.i.d. normal log-returns	129
4.3.2	Measurement period	134
4.3.3	Survivorship bias	136
4.4	Conclusions	140
5	Expected MRP estimation based on equity valuation models using analysts' consensus forecasts	143
5.1	Dividend discount and dividend growth model (DIV)	145
5.1.1	Basic model and assumptions	146
5.1.2	Terminal value considerations	147
5.1.3	Models used in empirical research	156
5.2	Residual income model (RIV)	160
5.2.1	Basic model and assumptions	160
5.2.2	Terminal value considerations	163
5.2.3	Key issues in empirical model implementation	167
5.2.4	Models used in empirical research	169
5.2.4.1	Claus/Thomas (2001)	172
5.2.4.2	Gebhardt/Lee/Swaminathan (2001)	173
5.2.4.3	Easton/Taylor/Shroff/Sougiannis (2002)	174
5.2.4.4	Daske/Gebhardt/Klein (2006)	177
5.2.4.5	Summary of selected other studies	180
5.3	Earnings capitalization models (CAP)	183
5.3.1	Basic model and assumptions	183
5.3.2	Terminal value considerations	184
5.3.3	Models used in empirical research	186
5.3.3.1	Gode/Mohanram (2003)	186
5.3.3.2	Easton (2004)	187
5.3.3.3	Summary of selected other studies	189
5.4	Equivalence of equity valuation models in practical implementations	191
5.5	Description of utilized models for estimating the expected MRP	202
5.6	Sample data	211

5.6.1	Accuracy of analysts' estimates	211
5.6.2	Data sources	216
5.6.3	Sample selection approach	218
5.7	Methodological considerations	219
5.7.1	Averaging procedure	220
5.7.2	Discounting reference date	221
5.7.3	Time-matching of input variables	223
5.7.4	Intra-year dividend payments	228
5.8	Calculation example	231
5.9	Discussion of results	240
5.9.1	Germany	241
5.9.2	Canada	253
5.9.3	France	258
5.9.4	Japan	263
5.9.5	United Kingdom	269
5.9.6	United States	274
5.9.7	World (aggregation of all analyzed countries)	281
5.10	Comparison of expected MRP estimates between countries	286
5.10.1	Comparison of unconditional averages	286
5.10.2	Comparison of cross-country correlation	289
5.11	Comparison of expected MRP estimates between models	291
5.11.1	Correlation between expected MRP estimates from different models	291
5.11.2	Cross-sectional analyses of expected MRP estimates	292
5.12	Time-variability of conditional expected MRPs estimates	302
5.13	Unconditional versus conditional expected MRP estimates for corporate valuations	306
5.14	Conditional expected MRP estimates during the financial crisis	307
5.15	Conclusions	311
6	Expected MRP estimation based on the return decomposition approach	317
6.1	Models and assumptions	317
6.1.1	Base model	317
6.1.2	Unconditional expected MRP estimates	318
6.1.3	Conditional time-variable expected MRP estimates	323
6.2	Methodological considerations	324

6.3	Discussion of results	325
6.3.1	Summary of previous studies on unconditional expected MRPs.....	325
6.3.2	Results for the data set of this study	330
6.3.2.1	Germany.....	331
6.3.2.2	Canada	341
6.3.2.3	France	341
6.3.2.4	Japan.....	341
6.3.2.5	United Kingdom	342
6.3.2.6	United States	342
