

August Österle (ed.)

Long-term Care in Central and South Eastern Europe

PETER LANG

Frankfurt am Main · Berlin · Bern · Bruxelles · New York · Oxford · Wien

Contents

Foreword.....	7
List of Tables.....	11
List of Contributors.....	15
1 Providing Care for Growing Needs: The Context for Long-term Care in Central and South Eastern Europe	17
August Österle, Lisa Mittendrein, Katharina Meichenitsch
2 Long-term Care in Austria: Between Family Orientation, Cash for Care and Service Provision	41
August Österle, Katharina Meichenitsch, Lisa Mittendrein
3 Long-term Care for Older People in Croatia.....	67
Silvia Rusac, Ana Štambuk, Nino Žganec, Marina Ajduković
4 Long-term Care in the Czech Republic: On the Threshold of Reform ..	81
Jana Barvíková
5 Long-term Care in Hungary: Between Health and Social Care	105
László Gulácsi, Katalin Érsek, Kinga Mészáros
6 Long-term Care Policy in Romania: A Hesitant Response to a Pressing Need	123
Livia Popescu
7 Ageing and the Welfare Mix Policy in Serbia.....	151
Marija Kolin
8 Long-term Care in the Slovak Republic	175
Helena Kuvíková, Jana Štrangfeldová, Lenka Topinková, Katarína Vidličková
9 Needs and Beads: The Emerging Long-term Care System of Slovenia	189
Vito Flaker, Barbara Kresal, Mateja Nagode
10 A Comparative Analysis of Long-term Care in Central and South Eastern Europe	213
August Österle	