

Strategic Supply Chain Management

Carlos Córdón, Kim Sundtoft Hald and Ralf W. Seifert

Contents

List of figures	x
List of tables	x
Introduction	1
How the book is organized	1
The philosophy: Learning with cases	2
1 Thinking strategically about supply chain management	3
The extended supply chain	4
From a function to a vital company process	5
From operations to finance, leadership, innovation and risk management	6
The supply chain: An integrative view of a company's business model	7
Note	9
2 The supply chain: Key driver of your business model	10
Vertically and horizontally integrated supply chains	11
Identifying and managing supply chain risks	14
Designing supply chain response strategies	16
Bringing strategic flexibility into supply chains	17
Cases in this chapter	18
Case 2.1 Luxottica: Sustaining growth in challenging times	21
Case 2.2 MAS Holdings: Providing design to delivery solutions to the global apparel industry	44
Case 2.3 Nestlé: Quality on the boardroom agenda (A)	66
Case 2.4 Nestlé: Quality on the boardroom agenda (B)	75
Chapter notes	80
Case study notes	80

3 Handling dilemmas in the supply chain

82

- The flexibility–efficiency dilemma* 82
- The supply chain’s global footprint* 84
- The flow and stock of capital in the supply chain* 86
- Organizing the supply chain processes* 87
- Innovation through the supply chain* 89
- Cases in this chapter* 90
 - Case 3.1 Numico: Delivering innovation through the supply chain (A)* 93
 - Case 3.2 Numico: Transforming the supply chain to support new realities (B)* 102
 - Case 3.3 Numico: King Project* 113
 - Case 3.4 ABB transformers* 120
 - Case 3.5 Hewlett-Packard: Creating a virtual supply chain (A)* 131
 - Case 3.6 Hewlett-Packard: Creating a virtual supply chain (B)* 140
- Chapter notes* 142

4 Making the supply chain work

143

- Supply chain fundamentals* 143
- Managing relations across companies* 145
- Challenging customer demands and reducing supply chain complexities* 147
- Sharing risks and rewards with customers and suppliers* 148
- Fast-track project management with suppliers* 149
- Cases in this chapter* 150
 - Case 4.1 Novo Nordisk Engineering: Running for fast-track project execution* 153
 - Case 4.2 Building partnerships: Reinventing Oracle’s go-to-market strategy* 163
 - Case 4.3 LEGO: Consolidating distribution (A)* 176
 - Case 4.4 LEGO: Consolidating distribution (B)* 189
 - Case 4.5 Freqon: Buyer–supplier evolution?* 196
 - Case 4.6 Unaxis: Going Asia (A)* 206
 - Case 4.7 Unaxis: Going Asia (B)* 215
- Chapter notes* 218
- Case study notes* 218

5 Sustaining supply chain alignment	220
How much does change affect your business?	220
Business context analysis	222
Realigning your supply chain	224
Outlook	229
Cases in this chapter	229
Case 5.1 The 'mi adidas' mass customization initiative	231
Case 5.2 Hilti: Gearing the supply chain for the future (A)	252
Case 5.3 Hilti: Reflections and outlook (B)	265
Chapter notes	268
Case study notes	268
Index	270