

The History of Bankruptcy

Economic, social and cultural implications
in early modern Europe

Edited by Thomas Max Safley

Contents

List of contributors	xi
1 Introduction: a history of bankruptcy and bankruptcy in history	1
THOMAS MAX SAFLEY
PART I
Social contexts	17
2 Merchants' bankruptcies, economic development and social relations in German cities during the long 16th century	19
MARK HÄBERLEIN
3 Debt and default in 18th-century Champagne	34
THOMAS BRENNAN
4 Credit, trust and risk: shopkeepers' bankruptcies in 18th-century Paris	52
NATACHA COQUERY
5 Financial networks, migration and the transformation of the merchant elite in 18th-century Stockholm	72
KLAS NYBERG AND HÅKAN JAKOBSSON
PART II
Business practices	95
6 Bankruptcy in the Kingdom of Naples: the case of public banks (17th to 18th centuries)	97
PAOLA AVALLONE

7 Learning from others' failures: the rise of the Monte di pietà in early modern Bologna	108
MAURO CARBONI AND MASSIMO FORNASARI
8 Bankruptcy and the bank: the case of the "kaiserlich königliche Wiener octroyierte Commercial-, Leih- und Wechselbank" of Vienna in the 18th century	126
DANA ŠTEFANOVÁ
9 Boom and crisis in financing the British transatlantic trade: a case study of the bankruptcy of John Leigh & Company in 1811	141
MINA ISHIZU
PART III
Institutional developments	155
10 The insolvent Zuchthaus as cameralist dystopia	157
ANDRE WAKEFIELD
11 Bankruptcy in early modern German territories	173
PAUL FISCHER
12 Bankruptcy, insolvency and debt collection among merchants in Antwerp (c.1490 to c.1540)	185
DAVE DE RUYSSCHER
13 The reception of the actio Pauliana in Scots law	200
JOHN MACLEOD
14 Bankruptcy, fresh start and debt renegotiation in England and France (17th to 18th century)	223
JÉRÔME SGARD
Bibliography	236
Index	242