Social Protection in Developing Countries
Reforming systems

Edited by
Katja Bender, Markus Kaltenborn and Christian Pfleiderer
Contents

List of figures viii
List of tables ix
List of contributors x
Foreword xii
List of abbreviations and acronyms xiv

Introduction 1
KATJA BENDER, MARKUS KALTENBORN AND CHRISTIAN PFLEIDERER

PART I
Objectives and political economy of social protection reforms 11

1 Rescuing social protection from the poverty trap: new programmes and historical lessons 13
SARAH COOK

2 Social protection for poverty reduction: approaches, effectiveness and challenges 24
ARMANDO BARRIENTOS

3 The political economy of social protection reforms in developing countries: what is to be explained and how? 33
KATJA BENDER

4 Social cohesion: does it matter for growth and development? 43
JOHANNES JÜTTING AND ANNALISA PRIZZON
PART II

The legal framework of social protection reforms

5 The human rights-based approach to social protection
MARKUS KALTENBORN

6 The role of law and legal institutions in the reform of social protection systems: experiences from South Africa
OCKERT DUPPER

7 The role of the law of regional organisations in reforms of social protection systems: portability of social security benefits in the East African Community
TULIA ACKSON

8 Reforms of social protection systems in Latin America: the legal context
LORENA OSSIO BUSTILLOS

PART III

Political feasibility of basic social protection

9 Attitudes towards hard work and redistributive preferences in developing countries
ANIL DUMAN

10 Populous, precarious – protected? The paradox of social security for South Asian agricultural workers
KARIN ASTRID SIEGMANN

11 Whom to target – an obvious choice?
ESTHER SCHÜRING AND FRANZISKA GASSMANN

12 How to target: overview on current targeting methods in social protection
CHRISTIAN PFLEIDERER
PART IV
Social protection systems: between fragmentation and integration 147

13 Building social protection and labour systems 149
DANIEL A. ROBALINO, LAURA RAWLINGS AND IAN WALKER

14 The political economy of social protection reforms in Indonesia 161
BAMBANG WIDIANTO

15 Social protection reforms in Vietnam: experiences and challenges 176
NGUYEN THI LAN HUONG AND MATTHIAS MEISSNER

16 Social protection: political reform and policy innovations in South Asia 185
GABRIELE KOEHLER

17 Caring for the urban middle class: the political economy of social protection in Arab countries 195
MARKUS LOEWE

PART V
Social protection reforms: international contexts 205

18 Building national social protection floors and social security systems: the ILO’s two-dimensional social security strategy 207
CHRISTINA BEHRENDT

19 Developing countries’ social protection measures in reaction to the global economic and financial crisis 219
YANCHUN ZHANG AND NINA THELEN

20 Social protection and the four horsemen of the donor apocalypse 226
NICHOLAS FREELAND

Index 236