

MARIA A. SLOWINSKA

Art/Commerce

The Convergence of Art and Marketing in Contemporary Culture

[transcript]

Contents

Art/Commerce: Blurring the Line | 7

Art Spaces/Commercial Spaces | 19

A Short Stroll through History: Museums and Department Stores,
Galleries and Boutiques | 19

An Excursion to Texas: Elmgreen and Dragset's Prada Marfa | 29

Prada Marfa: A Site-Specific Installation | 34

Discursive Site Specificity I: Prada Marfa and the White Cube | 40

Moving around in Space: Minimalism | 48

Discursive Site Specificity II: Prada Marfa and Minimalism | 62

Discursive Site Specificity III: From the Gallery to the Boutique—
White Cube Retail Spaces | 72

Moving around in the White Cube Boutique: Aesthetic Perspectives on
Commercial Spaces | 87

Discursive Site Specificity IV: Other Art-Related Retail Spaces | 95

Art Objects/Brand Products | 109

What It's Worth: Economic Value and Aesthetic Value | 111

Art into Life: Aesthetic Experience | 123

The Dematerialization of Art: Conceptual Art | 137

Recovering Experience: Shifting Perception in Land Art and
Performance Art | 153

Branding: From Object to Experience | 161

Transitions: Aesthetic Experience/Brand Experience | 170

Artist/Entrepreneur | 187

Modernism and Beyond: From Abstract Expressionism to Pop Art | 188

A New Art, a New Artist: Pop Art | 202

From Studio to Factory: Redefining the Artist's Work | 217

Where's the Artist? From Auctorial Artist to Entrepreneurial Artist | 226

Here's the Artist: The Creative Industries and the Creative Economy | 238

Lead Actor in the Creative Economy: The Artist/Entrepreneur | 250

Art/Commerce: The Question of Autonomy | 261

Bibliography | 271