

---

Sustainable Development

An Appraisal from the Gulf Region

Edited by
Paul Sillitoe

berghahn

NEW YORK • OXFORD

www.berghahnbooks.com

---

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Foreword Sheikha Al-Misnad	xiv
Introduction. Sustainable Development in the Gulf Paul Sillitoe	1
Chapter 1. Societal Change and Sustainability within the Central Plateau of Iran: An Archaeological Viewpoint Mark Manuel, Robin Coningham, Gavin Gillmore and Hassan Fazeli	38
Part I. Planning Sustainable Development
Chapter 2. Qatar National Vision 2030: Advancing Sustainable Development Trudy Tan, Aziza Al-Khalaqi and Najla Al-Khulaifi	65
Chapter 3. The Qatar National Master Plan Khondker Rahman	82
Chapter 4. The State of Qatar: Along the Way to Sustainable Development Bahaa Darwish	97
Chapter 5. Charting the Emergence of Environmental Legislation in Qatar: A Step in the Right Direction or Too Little Too Late? Wesam Al Othman and Sarah F. Clarke	116
Part II. Energy and Economic Issues
Chapter 6. Sustainable Energy: What Futures for Qatar? Thomas Henfrey	135
Chapter 7. Money Rain: The Resource Curse in Two Oil and Gas Economies Emma Gilberthorpe, Sarah F. Clarke and Paul Sillitoe	153

Chapter 8. Islam and Sustainable Economic Development Rodney Wilson	178
--	-----

Part III. Environmental Issues

Chapter 9. Linking Local and Global in the Sustainable Development of Biodiversity Conservation Ben Campbell	197
---	-----

Chapter 10. Conservation and Sustainable Development: The Qatari and Gulf Region Experience Paul Sillitoe with Ali Alshaw	221
--	-----

Chapter 11. Promoting Sustainable Development in Marine Regions James Howard	270
---	-----

Chapter 12. Biodiversity Conservation and Sustainability: Friends or Enemies? Nobuyuki Yamaguchi	291
---	-----

Part IV. Urban and Health Issues

Chapter 13. From Pearling to Skyscrapers: The Predicament of Sustainable Architecture and Urbanism in Contemporary Gulf Cities Ali A. Alraouf and Sarah F. Clarke	313
--	-----

Chapter 14. How the City Grows: Urban Growth and Challenges to Sustainable Development in Doha, Qatar Andrew M. Gardner	343
--	-----

Chapter 15. Sustainable Waste Management in Qatar: Charting the Emergence of an Integrated Approach to Solid Waste Management Sarah F. Clarke with Salah Almannai	367
--	-----

Chapter 16. Sustainable Development and Health: From Global to Local Agenda Mylène Riva, Catherine Panter-Brick and Mark Eggerman	391
--	-----

Part V. Cultural and Social Issues

Chapter 17. Exploring Collaborative Research Methodologies in the Pursuit of Sustainable Futures Gina Porter	419
---	-----

Chapter 18. On the Importance of Culture in Sustainable Development	436
Serena Heckler
Chapter 19. People, Social Groups, Cultural Practices: From Venn Diagrams to Alternative Paradigms for Sustainable Development	460
Fadwa El Guindi
Chapter 20. Contradictory Forces in the Gulf Environment: Old and New Cultural Values and Knowledge	481
Kaltham Al-Ghanim
Conclusion. A Doha Undeclaration, Puzzling over Sustainable Development with Indigenous Knowledge	497
Paul Sillitoe
Notes on Contributors	531
Index	541