

The Greening of European Business under EU Law

Taking Article 11 TFEU Seriously

Edited by Beate Sjøfjell and Anja Wiesbrock

Contents

Contributors	xiii
1 The importance of Article 11 TFEU for regulating business in the EU: securing the very basis of our existence	1
ANJA WIESBROCK AND BEATE SJÄFJELL
PART I
Genesis, purpose and overarching significance of Article 11 TFEU	13
2 The sky is the limit: on the drafting of Article 11 TFEU's integration obligation and its intended reach	15
JULIAN NOWAG
3 Article 11 TFEU in the light of the principle of sustainable development in international law	31
CHRISTINA VOIGT
4 The legal significance of Article 11 TFEU for EU institutions and Member States	51
BEATE SJÄFJELL
PART II
Article 11 TFEU and the potential for reform of European business	73
5 Sustainable State aid: a full environmental integration into the EU's State aid rules?	75
ANJA WIESBROCK

6	Corporate governance for sustainability: the necessary reform of EU company law	97
	BEATE SJÄFJELL
7	Article 11: integrated reporting or non-financial reporting?	118
	CHARLOTTE VILLIERS AND JUKKA MÄHÖNEN
8	Towards an integrated product regulatory framework based on life-cycle thinking	144
	ELÉONORE MAITRE EKERN
9	Environmental damage insurance for sustainable business	163
	JOHANNA ROSENQVIST
10	The jigsaw puzzle of sustainability	181
	ANJA WIESBROCK AND BEATE SJÄFJELL
	Index	193