INDUSTRIAL POLICY AND ECONOMIC TRANSFORMATION IN AFRICA

EDITED BY

Akbar Noman
and Joseph E. Stiglitz

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY PRESS
NEW YORK
CONTENTS

Acronyms ix
Acknowledgments xiii

1. Introduction and Overview: Economic Transformation and Learning, Industrial, and Technology Policies in Africa 1
   Akbar Noman and Joseph E. Stiglitz

2. Is Industrial Policy Necessary and Feasible in Africa?: Theoretical Considerations and Historical Lessons 30
   Ha-Joon Chang

   Akio Hosono

4. The Economic Implications of a Comprehensive Approach to Learning on Industrial Policy: The Case of Ethiopia 102
   Go Shimada

5. Review of Industrial Policies in Ethiopia: A Perspective from the Leather and Cut Flower Industries 123
   Girum Abebe and Florian Schaefer

6. The Return of Industrial Policy: (What) Can Africa Learn from Latin America? 162
   Annalisa Primi

   Stephany Griffith-Jones with Ewa Karwowski
   Danny Leipziger and Shahid Yusuf

9. Measuring Policy Performance: Can We Do Better than the World Bank?
   Julia Cagé

About the Editors 293
About the Authors 295
Index 299