

James McCalman, Robert A. Paton & Sabina Siebert

CHANGE MANAGEMENT

A Guide to

EFFECTIVE IMPLEMENTATION

 SAGE

Los Angeles | London | New Delhi
Singapore | Washington DC

CONTENTS

List of Mini Case Studies	xi
Guided Tour	xii
Foreword	xiv
About the Authors	xvi
Acknowledgements	xvii
PART 1 THE IMPACT AND DEFINITION OF CHANGE	1
1 Introducing Change Management	3
The importance of change	5
The imperative of change	7
The impact of change	9
Change and transition management	10
Outline of the book	13
2 The Manager and the Objective Outsider	16
Change and the manager	16
The change agent or master	24
The objective outsider	26
What type of change agent is required?	28
The internal change agent: pros and cons?	32
The golden rules	34
The change agent's approach to change	36
Summary	41
Points for discussion	42
Recommended reading	42
3 Cultural Attributes of Change	46
A 3-dimensional view of culture	48
Developing cultural building blocks	54
The cultural web	59

Change Management

Culture and change	62
Summary	63
Recommended reading	65
4 Leading Change	66
What is leadership?	67
Change leader or leaders: the cast of characters	78
Summary	79
Recommended reading	80
PART 2 IMPLEMENTATION AND EVALUATION OF CHANGE	83
5 The Nature of Change	85
The role and selection of the problem owner	86
Locating change on the change spectrum	88
The TROPICS test	91
Force field analysis: a positioning tool	93
Success guarantors: commitment, involvement and a shared perception	95
Managing the triggers	98
Summary	101
Points for discussion	102
Recommended reading	102
6 Mapping Change	106
The role of diagramming in systems investigation	110
A review of basic flow diagramming techniques	113
Systems relationships: the key to success	118
Systems diagramming	120
Systems mapping	121
Influence charts	122
Multiple cause diagrams	124
A multi-disciplinary approach	127
Recommended reading	130
7 Intervention Strategies	132
What is a system?	133
Systems autonomy and behaviour	135
The intervention strategy	136
The three phases of intervention	138
The intervention strategy model (ISM)	140
The stages of ISM	142

The 'quick and dirty' analysis	150
The iterative nature of the model	151
Living with reality	151
Summary	152
Points for discussion	152
Recommended reading	153
8 Total Project Management	159
The value of total project management	160
Complex projects	161
Total project management	162
Administrative and organizational points	168
Organizational development and design: their role in systems interventions	170
Summary	173
Points for discussion	173
Recommended reading	174
9 People Management	177
Why manage people?	180
We have met the enemy; it is us	182
The models we use are too limiting	187
Our organizations have no purpose	194
Managers lack the resolution to delegate	196
Organizations have no values	198
Summary	202
Recommended reading	203
10 Organization Development	204
The concept of design in organizations	204
Sorry, there are no route maps	208
Where does organization development come from?	209
McGregor and The Human Side of Enterprise	210
The Tavistock Institute and socio-technical systems	212
Motivation of the individual	214
Job and work design	216
Interpersonal relations	217
Participative management	218
The organization development model: how do organizations develop effectively?	219
The organization development process	224
The organizational development matrix	226

x Change Management

Phases of an OD intervention	229
Guiding values and philosophy	232
Summary	236
Recommended reading	236

PART 3 CHANGE MANAGEMENT – A CRITICAL PERSPECTIVE 239

11 Competing Narratives 241

Managing outcomes	242
Competing narratives: what are they?	243
Multiple subjective narratives	245
An interactive view of change	246
Reporting the case of the competing narrative	248
Summary	251
Points for discussion	252
Recommended reading	253

12 Organizational Politics and Change 256

Defining organizational politics	258
Why do people engage in politics?	259
But is it ethical?	262
Uneasy bedfellows?	264
Applying ethics to turf game tactics – points and counterpoints	267
The politics of change – some case study evidence	272
Summary	280
Recommended reading	282

13 The Future of Change 283

Dealing with the future	284
Ten key factors in effective change management	287

References	293
-------------------	-----

Index	303
--------------	-----