

Losers in Trade: Economics and Normative Justifications

Robert F. Lepenies

2015

Table of Contents

List of Tables and Figures	v
Acknowledgements	vii
Declaration.....	xi
Abstract.....	xiii
Zusammenfassung	xv
Chapter 1. Introduction	1
1.1 My Argument	1
1.2 Outline of this Dissertation	2
PART I.....	3
Chapter 2. Classical Economics and Normative Arguments	5
2.1 Introduction	5
2.2 The Consensus is Neoclassical and Microeconomic	5
2.3 Lay Views on Trade	7
2.4 How to Trace a Vision.....	9
2.5 Classical Economics, Central Concepts	12
2.6 Theories of Value, Wage, and Price.....	15
2.7 Private Interest for Public Gains: The Division of Labour	18
2.8 The Centrality of Exchange	22
2.9 The Purpose of Economic Activity.....	24
2.10 Classical Economists on Trade, Classical Trade Theory.....	25
2.11 Economics vs. Politics? The Role of the State	28
2.12 Questions of Just Distribution	31
2.13 Losers in Economic Exchange	33
2.14 Studying Economics after Smith	35

Chapter 3. Historical Neoclassical Economics39

3.1 Introduction 39

3.2 Methodological Individualism as Novelty 40

3.3 Competitive Markets, Equilibrium, and Walras..... 42

3.4 The Birth of a Discipline..... 44

3.5 The Purpose of Economics: Practical..... 47

3.6 Marshall and Utility 48

3.7 Measuring Utility: Distribution and Political Philosophy..... 52

3.8 Marshall and Losers from Economic Activity 52

3.9 Clark on Marginal Productivity and Just Distribution..... 54

3.10 Welfare Economics I: Pigou..... 56

3.11 Critics of Historical Neoclassical Economics 60

3.12 A Short Summary of the Impact of Historical Neoclassical Economics 65

Chapter 4. Developing the Neoclassical Vision67

4.1 Introduction 67

4.2 Developing the Vision: Robbins, Hicks, Chicago 67

4.3 Overcoming Utility..... 68

4.4 The Renouncement of Ethics in Economics 69

4.5 The Scarcity Definition of Economics 71

4.6 Robbins and Pareto Optimality..... 73

4.7 Welfare Economics II: Hicks, Inspired by Pareto 74

4.8 What Hicks Reveals..... 77

4.9 Kaldor-Hicks Compensation and Just Distribution 79

4.10 Theorems of Welfare Economics and Ideology..... 84

4.11 Uses and Abuses of the Word Neoclassical 86

PART II89

Chapter 5. Critique of Normative Trade Theory..... 91

5.1 Introduction 91

5.2 Normative Trade Theory, Today..... 91

5.3 The Special Character of Economics Textbooks 94

5.4 Normative Trade Theory: Central Arguments 95

5.5 The Structure of International Economics Textbooks 97

5.6 Applied Welfare Analysis 100

5.7 The Role of Welfare as Preference Satisfaction.....	102
5.8 Normative Trade Theory as Political Philosophy?.....	103
5.9 Comparative Advantage – the Crucial Concept	105
5.10 Neoclassical Trade Models and Their Assumptions.....	107
5.11 Comparative Advantage and a Neoclassical Vision	109
5.12 Denigrating Opposition in Public Debate.....	111
5.13 Extending the Simple Idea: CA Trade Models	113
5.14 The Optimistic Criterion: From Pareto to Kaldor-Hicks	114
5.15 The Ethics of Pareto: Fundamental Questions	120
5.16 Blaug-Hennipman on Normativity of Efficiency.....	122
5.17 Equity vs. Efficiency and the FTWE	127
5.18 Trade, Technology and Natural Distributions.....	128
5.19 Technology and the Inevitability of Progress	130
5.20 Just Distribution through Fair Gambles.....	133
Chapter 6. The Neoclassical Vision and the Role of Politics	141
6.1 Introduction	141
6.2 Politics as Annoyance - the Neoclassical Universe	141
6.3 Human Nature, Consumption and Production	142
6.4 The Scarcity Economy and What it Assumes.....	145
6.5 Market Failure, Government Failure.....	146
6.6 The Role of Politics: To Repair the Market	148
6.7 The Neoclassical Vision on Global Politics	150
6.8 Institutional Preconditions for Market Exchange	152
6.9 No Room for Political Logic	156
6.10 The Free Trade/Protectionism Dichotomy.....	158
6.11 Autarky and TINA logic	161
6.12 Vision Without Ethics, Role of the Economist.....	162
6.13 Yes, Normative Trade Theory as Political Philosophy!	164
PART III	167
Chapter 7. The Rawlsian Counter-vision.....	169
7.1 Introduction	169
7.2 Introduction to John Rawls's Perspective of Justice.....	171
7.3 Politics, Public Policy and Principles of Justice	173

7.4 Rationalism, Reflective Equilibrium, Ethical Principles.....	175
7.5 Resourcism and Principles of Justice	180
7.6 The Principles of Justice: Liberty Principle	182
7.7 The Difference Principle and the Opportunity Principle	183
7.8 The Best of Both Worlds: Liberty and Equality.....	184
7.9 Just Background Conditions, Institutions and Markets	185
7.10 Rawls on Private Society and Cooperation	187
7.11 Rawls, Hayek on Society as Cooperative Venture for Mutual Advantage	189
Chapter 8. Friendly Amendments to Rawls.....	195
8.1 Introduction	195
8.2 Rawls's View of Economics as a Science: Uncritical?	196
8.3 A Missed Chance for Heterodox Critique.....	198
8.4 Procedural – not Allocative Justice.....	200
8.5 Economic versus Political Behavior.....	203
8.6 Rawls and Market Mentality	206
8.7 Markets as Fair Gambles.....	208
8.8 The Difference Principle and Markets.....	210
8.9 Efficiency and Justice. Subordinate to? Compatible with?	211
8.10 Conventional vs. Liberty-Adjusted Efficiency.....	212
8.11 Technocratic Optimism: Markets as Policy Tool.....	218
8.12 Rawls and Policy.....	220
8.13 Legitimate Expectations of Losers	223
8.15 How are Losers Treated: Economic Rights	227
8.16 Property Owning Democracy	230
Chapter 9. Conclusion.....	235
9.1 Summary of the Argument	235
9.2 Outlook and Areas for Further Research	244
Bibliography	247
Originality Check.....	275
Summary of Plagiarism Check	275