

EUCOTAX Series on European Taxation

VAT/GST in a Global Digital Economy

Edited by

Michael Lang
Ine Lejeune

Wolters Kluwer
Law & Business

Table of Contents

Editors	v
Contributors	vii
Preface	xxi
List of Figures and Table	xxiii
CHAPTER 1
The New Models of the Digital Economy and New Challenges for VAT Systems
Francesco Cannas	1
§1.01 Introduction	1
§1.02 Background and Most Recent Developments	2
[A] The Ottawa Conference	2
[B] The E-Commerce Guidelines	3
[C] The Consumption Tax Papers	3
[D] Recent Developments	4
[1] The BEPS Project	4
[2] The EU Report on Taxation of the Digital Economy	5
§1.03 New Business Models and VAT-Related Problems	6
[A] Context	6
[B] E-Commerce Models	6
[1] Business-to-Business	6
[2] Business-to-Consumer	7
[3] Consumer-to-Consumer	8
[C] Payment Services and Virtual Currencies	9
[D] Digital Goods and Digital Services	10
§1.04 A Case Study: Newspaper Subscriptions	11
[A] Introduction and Facts	11

Table of Contents

[B]	The EU	11
[C]	New Zealand	12
[D]	Australia	13
§1.05	Conclusion	13
CHAPTER 2A
The Treatment of 'Digital Products' and Other 'E-Services' under VAT
Marie Lamensch		15
§2A.01	Introduction	15
§2A.02	Characterizing and Defining Digital Products and E-Services	15
§2A.03	Place of Taxation and Assessment Rules for Digital Products and E-Services	18
§2A.04	Applying Reduced VAT Rates to E-Supplies: The Case of Books Versus E-Books	27
§2A.05	Conclusion	38
CHAPTER 2B
Comments on Chapter 2: View of the Court of Justice on Rates and Neutrality: Ruling in K Oy
Ine Lejeune		41
CHAPTER 3
VAT and Virtual Reality: How Should Cryptocurrencies Be Treated for VAT Purposes?
Oskar Henkow		45
§3.01	Introduction	45
§3.02	The Virtual Reality and VAT	46
§3.03	Treatment of Money, Debts and Vouchers under EU VAT	50
§3.04	Virtual Currencies and Their VAT Treatment	55
CHAPTER 4A
Intermediated Delivery and Third-Party Billing: Implications for the Operation of VAT Systems around the World
Sophie Claessens & Tom Corbett		59
§4A.01	Introduction	59
[A]	The World's Digital Transformation	59
§4A.02	Challenges Involved in Identifying the Business Liable for the VAT where Digital Services Are Delivered through Intermediaries	61
[A]	Are Sales to, or through, the Intermediary?	61
[B]	Why Is It Important?	63
§4A.03	Different Business Scenarios and Their VAT Applications	64
[A]	One Digital Content Service, Multiple Intermediaries	64
[1]	Intermediated Delivery: Above-the-VAT-Line Billing	65

[2] Intermediated Delivery: Below-the-VAT-Line Billing	67
§4A.04 EU VAT Directive Provisions and Implementing Provisions	70
[A] When Does Article 9a Apply?	71
[B] Taking Part in the Supply versus Carrying Content and/or Processing Payments	73
[C] Conditions for Rebuttal of the Presumption	75
§4A.05 Conclusion	77
CHAPTER 4B
Comments on the Discussion of Article 9a of Implementing Regulation 1042/2013
Duy Nguyen	79
§4B.01 Introduction	79
§4B.02 The Rebuttal Game: Too Many Captains?	79
§4B.03 Payment Processors Exemption	80
§4B.04 Financial Service Exemption as a Consequence?	81
CHAPTER 5
Exploring the Potential Linkages Between Income Taxes and VAT in a Digital Global Economy
Walter Hellerstein	83
§5.01 Introduction	83
§5.02 Jurisdiction to Tax in the Digital Global Economy: Linkages between Income Taxes and VAT	84
[A] Jurisdiction to Tax: Substantive Jurisdiction and Enforcement Jurisdiction	85
[1] Substantive Jurisdiction and Enforcement Jurisdiction	85
[2] The Relationship between Substantive Jurisdiction and Enforcement Jurisdiction	86
[B] Substantive and Enforcement Jurisdiction for Income Taxes and VAT in the Digital Global Economy	88
[1] Substantive Jurisdiction for Income Taxes and VAT Based on Digital Activity	88
[a] Substantive Jurisdiction to Tax Income Based on Digital Activity	88
[b] Substantive Jurisdiction for VAT Based on Digital Activity	92
[2] Enforcement Jurisdiction for Income Taxes and VAT Based on Digital Activity	93
[a] The VAT Reverse Charge Mechanism and B2B Digital Supplies	94
[b] Virtual Presence as a Creating Enforcement Jurisdiction for Income and VAT Purposes	94

Table of Contents

§5.03	Delineating the Tax Base in the Digital Global Economy: Linkages between Income Taxes and VAT	101
[A]	The Fundamental Linkage between Income Tax and Consumption Tax Bases	101
[B]	Attribution of the Tax Base: Commonly Controlled and Multiple Location Entities	102
[1]	Commonly Controlled Entities	102
[2]	Legal Entities with Multiple Locations	104
[a]	The Income Tax Rules	105
[b]	The VAT Rules and the OECD VAT/GST Guidelines	106
[c]	Linkages	109
§5.04	Concluding Observations regarding the Linkages between Income Taxes and VAT in the Digital Global Economy	116

CHAPTER 6

VAT Collection and Compliance in the Digital Economy: Challenges and Opportunities

Christophe Waerzeggers 119

§6.01	Introduction	119
§6.02	Thoughts on the VAT Collection Mechanism	120
§6.03	The Digital Economy: Anything New?	124
§6.04	Collecting VAT in the Digital Economy: Things That Don't Work That Well	127
[A]	VAT Self-Assessment by Final Consumers	127
[B]	Low-Value Goods Relief and VAT Collection by Customs	129
[C]	Disproportionate Compliance Burdens on Non-resident Sellers	131
§6.05	Collecting VAT in the Digital Economy: Things That Might Work Better	131
[A]	Relying on Indirect VAT Collection, but with Appropriate Simplification and Modification	132
[1]	Simplified Supplier Registration	132
[2]	Dealing with Intermediaries in the Digital Supply Chain	135
[B]	Simplified Supplier Registration May Also Be a Useful Alternative to Low-Value Goods Relief	137
[C]	Administrative Cooperation	138

CHAPTER 7A

Digital Economy International Administrative Cooperation and Exchange of Information in the Area of VAT

Thomas Ecker 141

§7A.01	Growing Need for Dispute Prevention and Resolution in the Area of VAT	141
--------	---	-----

§7A.02 Existing VAT Dispute Resolution Mechanisms	143
[A] Courts as Binding Dispute Resolution Mechanism	143
[1] National Courts	143
[2] Supranational or International Courts	144
[B] VAT Dispute Resolution and Prevention in the EU	145
[1] The ECJ	145
[2] VAT Committee	146
[3] Opinions of the European Commission	146
[4] VAT Cross-Border Rulings Test Case	147
[5] Other Measures	147
[C] Income Tax Dispute Resolution Mechanisms and Their Applicability to VAT	148
[D] OECD International VAT/GST Guidelines, Working Party No. 9 and Global Forum	151
[E] Other Examples of Dispute Resolution Fora	154
[F] Interim Conclusion	155
§7A.03 Dispute Prevention Mechanisms	156
[A] OECD Guidelines	156
[B] Advance Agreements	156
[C] Cooperative Compliance	157
[D] Good Law and Helpful and Easily Accessible Information Provided by the Tax Administration	157
[E] Exchange of Information	157
§7A.04 The Future: Binding Dispute Resolution Mechanisms Based on Treaties?	158
[A] Disputes about the Facts of a Case	158
[B] Disputes about Legal Interpretation	159
[C] VAT Treaty as a Solution?	159
§7A.05 Conclusion	160
CHAPTER 7B
International Administrative Cooperation and Exchange of Information in the Area of VAT
Björn Westberg	161
§7B.01 Key Points	161
§7B.02 The Digital Economy	161
§7B.03 The OECD Perspective	162
§7B.04 The EU Perspective	163
§7B.05 Principles of Neutrality	163
§7B.06 Substantive Jurisdiction	163
[A] Prerequisites for Efficient and Effective Enforcement	163
[B] B2B	164
[1] Application of Reverse Charge	164
[2] Consequences for Enforcement	164

Table of Contents

[C]	B2C	165
[1]	Application of the One-Stop-Shop Mechanism	165
[2]	Consequences for Enforcement	166
[D]	Different Treatment of the Substantive Jurisdiction	166
§7B.07	VAT Rates	166
§7B.08	Consequences for Enforcement	167
CHAPTER 7C
Digital Economy: International Administrative Cooperation and Exchange of Information in the Area of VAT – EU Perspective
Costantino Lanza		169
§7C.01	VAT and Digital Economy in the EU	169
[A]	Electronic Commerce, Compliance and Mutual Assistance in the EU	169
[B]	Challenges for Tax Administrations	171
[C]	Conclusion	172
CHAPTER 8
Looking Ahead: Potential Solutions and the Framework to Make Them Work
Rebecca Millar		173
§8.01	Introduction	173
§8.02	Does Anything Need to Be Done?	174
§8.03	Who Should Be Doing It?	185
§8.04	How Should It Be Done?	190
§8.05	A Few Suggestions on What Should Be Done	194
CHAPTER 9
Conclusions: The Future of VAT in a Digital Global Economy – Innovation versus Taxation
Ine Lejeune & Sophie Claessens		197
§9.01	Introduction	197
[A]	The Economy Is Becoming Digital	197
[B]	Is the Current Tax Framework Fit for the Digital Environment?	199
§9.02	The Place of Taxation	201
[A]	Direct Tax Concepts	201
[B]	VAT Concepts for E-Commerce in the EU	202
[1]	Place of Taxation of Digital Supplies for Consumption	203
[2]	Intermediaries	205
[3]	Role of the Permanent Establishment Concept	205
§9.03	The Specific Case of Bitcoins and Vouchers	206
[A]	Electronic Money	206
[B]	Vouchers	207

	[C] Bitcoins	207
§9.04	Rates and the Digital Economy: Equal Treatment and Neutrality	208
	[A] Introduction	208
	[B] European Court of Justice: K Oy Case	209
§9.05	Collecting VAT on Digital Supplies: ‘Reverse Charging’ versus ‘One Stop Shop Scheme’	209
§9.06	Enforcement of VAT Collection in a Digital Environment	213
	[A] Cooperation to Enforce and Facilitate Compliance and Legal Certainty	213
	[1] Instruments to Obtain Certainty	213
	[2] Dispute Prevention by Common Interpretation Guidelines	214
	[3] Existing Means for Cooperation and Exchange of Information	214
	[4] Administrative Cooperation and Enforcement	215
	[5] Multilateral Treaty	215
	[6] Protection of the Taxpayer against Claims from the Government	216
§9.07	Final Conclusions	216
Index		219