CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix
List of Abbreviations x
List of Tables xii

1. Introduction and Historical Overview 1

Part 1 The State and Neoliberalism 21
2. Neoliberal Restructuring and State Interventionism 23
3. Interventionist Labour Relations Policy 63

Part 2 The Military Regime and Organized Labour 1980–3 89
4. The Military Coup and Suppression of the Labour Movement 91
5. Authoritarian Corporatism 105
6. The Military Regime and Turkish Labour in the International Context 124

Part 3 Hegemony and the Dynamics of State–Labour Relations 1984–91 151
7. From Military Authoritarianism to Hegemony 153
8. Neoliberal Exclusion and Immobilization of the Labour Movement 183
9. The Labour Politics of Confronting Neoliberalism 210
10. The Counter-Labour Movement 236

Part 4 The Failed Search for a New Social Settlement and the Systemic Crisis 263

11. The Political Project of an Inclusionary State and Its Neoliberal Limits 265

12. Neocorporatism and Social Dialogue 304

13. Conclusion 336

Notes 344

Bibliography 375

Index 395