
Pierre Mora

Wine Positioning

A Handbook with 30 Case Studies of Wine Brands and Wine Regions in the World

Contents

1	Introduction: Issues, Objectives, and Method	1
1.1	Finding Wine's Place in the Context of Globalization	2
1.2	The Reality of Terroirs and Brands	4
1.3	Global Market: Trends and Forces	5
1.4	Meeting Consumer and Distributor Expectations	6
1.5	The Central Question of Differentiation	9
1.6	The Method	10
	References	13
 Part I How to Differentiate Wine? Trends, Questions, Debates, Tools, and Decisions
2	Understanding Consumer Behavior	17
2.1	At the Beginning All Seemed Easy, and Then	17
2.2	How Much Is the Consumer Involved in the Purchasing Process?	21
2.3	Are There Any Predictive Models?	22
2.4	"Easy to Drink" and "Happy to Choose"	25
2.5	The Contribution of Experiential Marketing to the Wine Industry	26
2.6	Conclusion	28
	Bibliography on Consumer Behavior in the Wine Industry	28
3	Identity, Segmentation, and Positioning	31
3.1	The Delicate Issue of a Wine's Identity	31
3.2	Segmentation Through the Benefits Sought	32
3.3	Segmentation Based on Behaviors	34
3.4	Wine and the Family Lifestyle	36
3.5	Standardization Versus Adaptation: The Troubling Effects of Globalization	38
	Bibliography on Segmentation and Positioning	40

4	Terroirs: Tell Me Where You Come From?	43
4.1	What Is a Terroir?	43
4.2	No Differentiation Without a Terroir	46
4.3	The Danger of the Terroir Standardization	48
4.4	Making a Homogeneous Appellation	48
4.5	Terroirs and Appellations: How to Tell the Story?	49
4.6	The Issue of Readability	52
	References	53
5	Wine Brand: Take It Easy?	55
5.1	What Is a Wine Brand?	56
5.1.1	Wine Brands in Ancient Times	56
5.1.2	A Very Brief Sociology of a Wine Brand	56
5.1.3	The Wine Brand as an Encounter	57
5.1.4	Value and the Wine Label	58
5.2	The Functions of a Wine Brand	59
5.2.1	Young Love Brands	59
5.2.2	The Wine Brand as a Dream Bracket	60
5.2.3	Is a Wine Brand for Non-experts?	60
5.2.4	Brand and Innovation	61
5.2.5	Wine Brands: Luxury for Ordinary People?	62
5.2.6	Acquiring or Using?	63
5.2.7	Wine Brand and Differentiation	64
5.2.8	Segmentation and Wine Brand	64
5.3	The Promises of a Wine Brand	65
5.3.1	Easy	65
5.3.2	Typical	65
5.3.3	Exclusive	66
5.3.4	Insurance	66
5.3.5	Pleasure	67
5.3.6	Experience	68
5.3.7	Tag on the Shelves	69
5.4	Wine Brands as a Tool	70
5.4.1	Less Than a Minute to Choose	70
5.4.2	A Landmark in the Middle of an Ocean	71
5.4.3	Profitability and Loyalty	71
5.4.4	A Place for the Brand	71
5.4.5	The Dreams of Distributors	72
5.4.6	Portfolio of Brands	72
5.4.7	Age and History of a Brand: Strength or Weakness?	73
5.4.8	Private Label	74
5.4.9	Brand and Positioning	75
5.4.10	Traceability of Wine Brands	75
5.4.11	Power of a Brand	77
5.4.12	Tasty, Healthy, and Fair Products	77
	Bibliography on Wine Brands	78

6	When the E-Shopper Meets the Wine Industry	81
6.1	When the E-Shopper Meets the Wine Industry	81
6.2	Six Pieces of Advice for E-Businesses in the Wine Sector	84
6.3	Anytime Anywhere Any Device	85
6.4	Added Value, the Internet, and Wine Merchants	86
6.5	Successful Websites in the Wine Industry	87
6.5.1	Information	87
6.5.2	Browsing	88
6.5.3	Security	89
6.5.4	Deal	89
6.5.5	Design	89
6.5.6	Reliability	90
6.5.7	Interactivity	90
	Bibliography on Wine and E-Business	90
7	Tools for Wine Differentiation and Positioning	93
7.1	SWOT Analysis	93
7.2	Extended Rivalry	95
7.3	Strategic Groups	97
7.4	Competition Diagnosis	98
7.5	Key Success Factors	99
7.6	Differentiation Levels	100
7.7	Diversification Opportunities	103
7.7.1	Three Levels of Differentiation	104
7.7.2	Wine Brand Personalities	106
7.7.3	The Power of Influence of Appellations	107
7.8	Communicating Difference	108
7.9	Coherence and Consistency of Distribution Channels	110
7.10	Conclusion: The Proper Use of Analytical Tools	111
	References	112

Part II Appellations and Wine Brands: Case Studies

8	The World of Appellations	117
8.1	Bandol, France	117
8.1.1	Components of the Identity	117
8.1.2	Apparent Positioning	118
8.1.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	119
8.2	Barossa, Australia	120
8.2.1	Components of the Identity	120
8.2.2	Apparent Positioning	121
8.2.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	122
8.3	Beiras, Portugal	123
8.3.1	Components of the Identity	123
8.3.2	Apparent Positioning	125
8.3.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	126

8.4	Bolgheri, Italy	127
8.4.1	Components of the Identity	128
8.4.2	Apparent Positioning	129
8.4.3	Suggestion for Differentiation	130
8.5	Central Otago, New Zealand	131
8.5.1	Components of the Identity	131
8.5.2	Apparent Positioning	132
8.5.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	133
8.6	Chinon, France	134
8.6.1	Components of the Identity	134
8.6.2	Apparent Positioning	135
8.6.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	136
8.7	Columbia Valley, Washington: United States of America	137
8.7.1	Components of the Identity	137
8.7.2	Apparent Positioning	138
8.7.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	139
8.8	Franken, Germany	140
8.8.1	Components of the Identity	140
8.8.2	Apparent Positioning	141
8.8.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	143
8.9	Friuli, Italy	144
8.9.1	Components of the Identity	144
8.9.2	Apparent Positioning	145
8.9.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	145
8.10	La Mancha, Spain	146
8.10.1	Components of the Identity	146
8.10.2	Apparent Positioning	147
8.10.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	148
8.11	Liguria, Italy	149
8.11.1	Components of the Identity	149
8.11.2	Apparent Positioning	150
8.11.3	Suggestion of Differentiation	151
8.12	Maipo, Chile	151
8.12.1	Components of the Identity	151
8.12.2	Apparent Positioning	152
8.12.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	153
8.13	Orange River, South Africa	154
8.13.1	Components of the Identity	154
8.13.2	Apparent Positioning	156
8.13.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	157
8.14	Penedes, Spain	158
8.14.1	Components of the Identity	158
8.14.2	Apparent Positioning	159
8.14.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	160

8.15	Premières Côtes de Bordeaux, France	161
8.15.1	Components of the Identity	161
8.15.2	Apparent Positioning	162
8.15.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	163
8.16	Ribera Del Guadiana, Spain	164
8.16.1	Components of the Identity	164
8.16.2	Apparent Positioning	167
8.16.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	169
8.17	San Juan, Argentina	170
8.17.1	Components of the Identity	170
8.17.2	Apparent Positioning	171
8.17.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	172
8.18	Sonoma Valley, California	173
8.18.1	Components of the Identity	173
8.18.2	Apparent Positioning	173
8.18.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	174
8.19	Valais, Switzerland	175
8.19.1	Components of the Identity	175
8.19.2	Apparent Positioning	176
8.19.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	178
	References	178
9	The World of Brands	179
9.1	Cloudy Bay, New Zealand	179
9.1.1	Brand Identification	179
9.1.2	Apparent Marketing Policy	180
9.1.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	181
9.2	Casillero del Diablo, Chile	181
9.2.1	Brand Identification	182
9.2.2	Apparent Marketing Policy	182
9.2.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	183
9.3	Collection Privée: Cordier Mestrezat, France	184
9.3.1	Brand Identification	184
9.3.2	Apparent Marketing Policy	185
9.3.3	Suggestion for Differentiation	186
9.4	El Coto de Rioja, Spain	187
9.4.1	Brand Identification	187
9.4.2	Apparent Marketing Policy	188
9.4.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	189
9.5	Enate, Spain	190
9.5.1	Brand Identification	190
9.5.2	Apparent Marketing Policy	191
9.5.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	192

9.6	First Cape, South Africa	193
9.6.1	Brand Identification	193
9.6.2	Apparent Marketing Policy	194
9.6.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	195
9.7	Ménage à Trois, United States	196
9.7.1	Brand Identification	196
9.7.2	Apparent Marketing Policy	198
9.7.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	199
9.8	Mendocino Castle Rock, United States	200
9.8.1	Brand Identification	200
9.8.2	Apparent Marketing Policy	201
9.8.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	202
9.9	Penfolds, Australia	203
9.9.1	Brand Identification	203
9.9.2	Apparent Marketing Policy	203
9.9.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	205
9.10	Stamp of Australia, Australia	205
9.10.1	Brand Identification	206
9.10.2	Apparent Marketing Policy	206
9.10.3	Suggestion for Differentiation	207
9.11	Ruffino Lumina, Italy	208
9.11.1	Brand Identification	208
9.11.2	Apparent Marketing Policy	209
9.11.3	Suggestions for Differentiation	209
	Reference	210

Part III Conclusion

10	Conclusion	213
10.1	Positioning: Defined or Perceived?	213
10.2	The Issue of Proximity	214
10.3	The Future Positioning of Products	214
10.4	Four Positioning Approaches	215
10.5	Expression du Terroir	216
	Index	217