THE

SAEMaul MOVEMENT

Korea’s Approach to Rural Modernization in 1970s

PARK JIN-HWAN

Korea Rural Economic Institute
Contents

1. Introduction

2. Brief Outline of Agriculture in Traditional Economy
   Scarce farm land and abundant farm Labor 7
   Colonial economy and rice farming 9
   Land reformation in a hyper-inflationary economy 10
   Rehabilitation of a war-torn economy 13
   Shortage of Food 15
   Investment in children’s education 20
   Manpower for development administration 23

3. The Industrialization of the Agrarian Economy
   A campaign to boost the self help spirit of farmers 26
   Labor intensive and export oriented industries 29
   Rural-urban developmental gap 33
   Diversification for new income streams 34

4. Work Ethic of Farmers in Rural Development
   The work ethic for economic development 41
   Work ethic of rice farmers 44

5. Selection of Work Projects in Village Units
   Problems at the village level 49
   Initiation of the Saemaul Movement 53
   Distribution of Cement 58
   Role of local administration in rural areas 62
   Village leaders 63
6. The implementation of Saemaul Projects
   State of the road systems 69
   Improving village roads 74
   Difficulties in widening internal village roads 76
   Small bridges constructed 78
   River banks improved 81
   Labor contributed for village road improvement 82
   Area of land contributed for Saemaul projects 87
   A farmer-minded personality 91
   Village roads and farm mechanization 92
   Renovation of farm houses 98
   Improvement of drinking water supply systems 103
   Substitution of fuel 105
   Inter-village competition 109
   Role of women and household savings 111
   Construction of village halls and democratic decision making 117
   High yielding varieties of rice and cash crops 121

7. Inter-Ministry Cooperation for Rural Modernization
   Limited function of the Agricultural Ministry 126
   Political will for rural modernization 129
   Rural electrification 132
   Rural telephones 139
   Rural clinics 141
   Saemaul factories 142

8. Training Programs for Village Leaders
   First trial of village leader training 146
   Group discussion 153
   Training of women leaders 156
   Case studies of successful farmers 159
Training of Saemaul leaders in the cities 170
Study visits to advanced villages 173
Invited lectures on national affairs 174
Follow up programs 176
The Saemaul flag and the Saemaul song 178
Training of trainers 180

9. Expansion of The Saemaul Movement
   Saemaul education for high ranking officials 182
   Saemaul education for business leaders 191

10. Diminution of the Movement
    Changes in political leadership 197
    Changes in farmer's needs 200
    Emergence of a leftist movement 202
    Decreasing demand for Saemaul education 204
    Challenges for structural adjustment 206
    Work ethics to cope with new challenges 207

11. The Legacy of the Saemaul Movement
    Development of primary agricultural cooperatives 209
    Development of grassroot democracy 212
    Quality improvement of outmigrated farm labor 212
    Progressive attitudes of people 213

12. Transferability to Other Countries
    Urgency of farmers for rural modernization 214
    Homogeneity among farmers 215
    Cultural tradition of cooperation 216
    Inter-Ministerial cooperation and political will 216
    Development of local administration in rural areas 217
    Timely implementation of Saemaul projects 218