Maximilian Martin

Building the Impact Economy

Our Future, Yea or Nay

Springer
Contents

Part I  Big Business: Climb to Sustainability?

1  Brave New World—Sustainable Mega Value Trends .................. 3
   1.1 The Four Drivers of Sustainable Value Creation .................. 3
   1.2 Serve Massive Pent-up Demand at the Base of the Pyramid .... 5
   1.3 Leverage LOHAS, a Pioneer Segment at the Top ................. 8
   1.4 Boost Total Resource Productivity ................................. 10
   1.5 Unleash a Triple-E Revolution on the Welfare State .......... 14
   References ........................................................................... 16

2  To Solve Problems, Take a Fresh View at Opportunity .............. 21
   2.1 Bye-Bye, CSR ................................................................. 21
   2.2 Play at a Higher Standard, but Compete ............................ 23
   2.3 Translate Opportunity into Business Transformation .......... 25
   References ........................................................................... 27

3  New Pathways to Results: Corporate Impact Venturing .............. 29
   3.1 Fuse Economic and Socio-Environmental Performance ........... 29
   3.2 Graduate from VC to CIV ............................................... 31
   3.3 Move Impact Ambitions from Niche to Scale ...................... 33
   3.4 Build a Program for Business Transformation .................... 35
   References ........................................................................... 38

Part II  Fashion: Upgrade Supply Chains Versus Dress to Kill

4  Fix Textile and Garment Supply Chains ................................. 43
   4.1 Value or Disaster: What’s It Going to Be? ......................... 43
   4.2 Global Fashion: New Buyers, New Producers ..................... 50
   4.3 Social and Environmental Issues We Need to Solve ............. 53
   References ........................................................................... 56
5 Changing Consumption and Production Patterns
5.1 Two Tribes: Fast Fashion Versus Virtuous Consumers
5.2 Transparency: Breathing Down the Supply Chain’s Neck
5.3 Unlock the Hidden Treasures of Resource Productivity
References

6 Pull the Key Levers
6.1 Foster Total Resource Productivity and Transparency
6.2 Invest to Upgrade Industry Infrastructure
6.3 Have a Fresh Go at Improving Working Conditions
6.4 Learn from Leading Players
References

7 How to Chart a Path for Supply Chain Transformation
7.1 The Future Can Be Dynamic and Positive
7.2 How to Design Complementary Models that Can Scale
7.3 Take up Fashion’s Ambition Level by More Than a Notch
References

Part III Fixing Energy, the Mother of All Markets

8 No Disruption, No Exponential Progress
8.1 Solex Needed: We Cannot Afford to Get Energy Wrong
8.2 Be Aware You Are Dealing with a Political Animal
8.3 Generation, Storage, Transmission: Invent to Disrupt
8.4 LENR et alia: Let a Thousand Flowers Bloom
8.5 It’s the Infrastructure, Stupid
References

9 Technologies for the No Subsidy Imperative
9.1 Solar PV: Efficiency Revolution, Now
9.2 Get “Big Wind 2.0” Blowing
9.3 Linear Progress Ain’t Good Enough: What’s Up with Storage?
References

10 Rebreed Field Mice into 800-Pound Gorillas
10.1 Renewables: Take off from an Underwhelming Baseline
10.2 Build Innovations’ Pathway to Market
10.3 Let Governments Enable Breakthrough
10.4 Move from Patchwork to Transition
References
Contents

11 Seven Game Changers for Our Energy Future

11.1 Take Storage from Linear to Algorithmic Progress .......................... 117
11.2 Invest to Take Solar to the Next Level .......................................... 119
11.3 Not Sexy, but Easy: Run with Energy Efficiency ............................ 121
11.4 Take E-Mobility beyond Entertainment ........................................... 122
11.5 Carefully Pick Winners in the Infrastructure Buildup ..................... 123
11.6 Digital Is Yin—Hardware Is Yang ................................................ 124
11.7 Keep “Out-of-the-Box” Thinkers on the Radar ............................... 125

References .................................................................. 126

12 Time to Aim High—Use Our Talents and Instruments

12.1 A Tale of Two Programs: Climate KIC and ARPA-E .......................... 129
12.2 The How-to Formula Links Capital, Talent—and Daring .................... 131
12.3 Cut Through Energy’s Gordian Knot ............................................. 133

References .................................................................. 134

Part IV Capital Markets, Time to Graduate from the Casino

13 Bringing the Power of Financial Innovation to Bear

13.1 Matrix Reloaded ............................................................................... 139
13.2 Fresh Investment Content Wanted ................................................. 145
13.3 Turn Impact Investing into the Solution It Could Be ......................... 147

References .................................................................. 150

14 Financing Our Adjustment to Megatrends

14.1 Finance Progress at the “Base of the Pyramid” ................................. 155
14.2 Invest in Total Resource Productivity ............................................. 157
14.3 Finance the Modernization of the Welfare State ............................... 158
14.4 Invest in Virtuous Consumer Innovation ....................................... 161

References .................................................................. 162

15 When Governments Stimulate Supply and Demand

15.1 Supply, Direct, Demand: Three Market Policy Levers ..................... 167
15.2 Use Structures and the Toolbox ....................................................... 169
15.3 Overcome the Barriers via Incentives ............................................. 169
15.4 Ask Regulators to Enable ............................................................... 171

References .................................................................. 173

16 Growing the Ecosystem of Impact Investment

16.1 Close the Gap ............................................................................... 175
16.2 Use Philanthropic Sector Builders’ Advantage .................................. 176
16.3 Let Angel and Early Stage Investors Generate Deal Flow ................ 176
16.4 Woo Professional Investors, the Scale Enablers ............................... 178
16.5 Go Mainstream via Institutional Investors ..................................... 178
16.6 Leverage DFIs for Emerging Market Impact Investing. 180
16.7 Financial Services Drive Intermediation and Wholesaling. 181
16.8 Banks and Crowdfunding: Kickoff Is When? 182
References. 183

17 Toward a Post-casino Paradigm 187
17.1 Vote that Proxy 187
17.2 Drive Impact Where the Action Is. 189
17.3 Invest for Impact in the Internet of Things 193
17.4 To Get to Impact Investing 2.0, Favor “Impact Light” 197
References. 200

Epilogue: Let’s Do It! 205