

THE EMPOWERED
MANAGER

SECOND EDITION

Positive Political Skills at Work

PETER BLOCK

WILEY

CONTENTS

	Prologue: To Read or Not to Read	ix
	Introduction: Why Empowerment Now and Again	xv
1	Managers in the Middle	1
PART ONE	Politics in the Workplace—Rekindling the Entrepreneurial Spirit	7
2	Personal Choices That Shape the Work Environment	9
	The Road Most Traveled	9
	Now You See It, Now You Don't	11
	Choosing an Entrepreneurial Path	12
	When to Play It Safe	19
3	A Culture of Empowerment	21
	The Bureaucratic Cycle	22
	The Entrepreneurial Cycle	24
	The Patriarchal Contract	26
	Myopic Self-Interest: The Myth That Advancement and Self-Esteem Are Related	35
	Manipulative Tactics	50
4	The Empowerment Choice	59
	The Entrepreneurial Contract	66

	Enlightened Self-Interest	78
	Authentic Tactics	87
PART TWO	Positive Political Skills at Work	97
5	Creating a Vision of Greatness	99
	Claiming Our Autonomy by Creating a Vision	99
	What Is a Vision and Why Is It Important?	100
	Creating the Vision	106
	Communicating Our Vision	117
	Coaching Others in Creating Their Vision	119
6	Negotiating with Allies and Adversaries	127
	The Critical Skills: Negotiating Agreement and
	Negotiating Trust	128
7	Balancing Autonomy and Interdependence	151
	Political Scripts	153
	The Right Use of Scripts	167
	Interdependence	169
	Autonomy and Interdependence	171
	Finding Peace with the Boss	172
8	Facing Organizational Realities	177
	Nonsuicidal Courageous Acts	179
9	Enacting the Vision	187
	Moving Toward Tension	188
	Final Thoughts	189
	Annotated Bibliography	195
	About the Author	197
	Acknowledgments	199
	Index	201