

The Political Economy of Special Economic Zones

Concentrating Economic Development

Lotta Moberg

Contents

List of illustrations	viii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgements	xii
Introduction	1
PART I
The theory of zone politics	21
1 The political economy context	23
2 Are SEZs better than the status quo?: Knowledge and incentive problems with SEZs	34
3 SEZs as drivers of reform	65
4 SEZs as promoters of liberalization or protectionism	90
PART II
Case studies	105
5 The problems of India's SEZs	107
6 How SEZs reformed China	122
7 Dividing the Dominican Republic	137
PART III
The political economy of future SEZs	153
8 Implications for SEZ policy makers	155
9 The changing world of SEZs	163
Conclusion	183
Index	185