

167 284 8113

Results-based approaches in agriculture: what is the potential?

Heiner Janus

Sarah Holzapfel

Bonn 2016

Contents

Abstract

Acknowledgements

Abbreviations

1	Introduction	1
2	Results-based approaches	2
2.1	Results-based approaches and agriculture	3
3	Lessons from implementing results-based programmes	6
3.1	Selecting the results	6
3.2	Setting up payments, measurement and verification processes	7
3.3	Supporting the incentivised actor	8
4	Overview of results-based approaches in agriculture, rural development and food security	9
4.1	Program-for-Results – Rwanda	11
4.1.1	What are the selected results?	11
4.1.2	How are payment, measurement and verification processes organised?	14
4.1.3	What support is provided?	14
4.1.4	What are the opportunities and challenges?	15
4.2	AgResults – Zambia	16
4.2.1	What are the selected results?	17
4.2.2	How are payment, measurement and verification processes organised?	17
4.2.3	What support is provided?	20
4.2.4	What are the opportunities and challenges?	21
4.3	Development Impact Bond – Peru	23
4.3.1	What are the selected results?	24
4.3.2	How are payment, measurement and verification processes organised?	25
4.3.3	What support is provided?	27
4.3.4	What are the opportunities and challenges?	27
5	Comparison of pilot programmes	29
6	Conclusions and recommendations	32
	References	35