Foucault and Managerial Governmentality
Rethinking the Management of Populations, Organizations and Individuals

Edited by Alan McKinlay and Eric Pezet

Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
NEW YORK AND LONDON
Contents

About the Contributors vii

Part I
Introduction 1

1 Governmentality: The Career of a Concept 3
ALAN MCKINLAY AND ERIC PEZET

Part II
Locating Governmentality 31

2 Getting to the Surface of Things: Foucault as Theorist and Historian of Management and Accounting 33
KEITH HOSKIN

3 A Dialogue with Foucault on Power 54
MARK HAUGAARD

4 Liberal Governmentalities and the Heterotopic Behaviour of the Firm 77
ERIC PEZET AND NELARINE CORNELIUS

Part III
Bodies and Souls 95

5 Governmentality and the Historian: Scotland and the History of Protestant Pastoral Power 97
ALISTAIR MUTC
Contents

6 Government at a Distance: The Spiritual Exercises of Saint Ignatius of Loyola 115
JOSE BENTO DA SILVA AND PAOLO QUATTRONE

7 Birth of the Pain Clinic: Governmentality, Identity and Chronic Pain 135
STEVEN J. GOLD

Part IV
Expertise, Experts and Governmentality 157

8 'Bottled Magic': The Business of Self-Knowledge 159
ALAN MCKINLAY AND SCOTT TAYLOR

9 Governing Knowledge: The Siemens Experience 178
NANCY RICHTER

Part V
Conclusion 195

10 Making Governmentality I: An Interview with Peter Miller 197
ALAN MCKINLAY

11 Making Governmentality II: An Interview with Nikolas Rose 210
ALAN MCKINLAY

Name Index 220
Subject Index 221