Oyebanke Oyeyinka

Industrial Clusters, Institutions and Poverty in Nigeria

The Otigba Information and Communications Technology Cluster

Springer
Contents

1 Industrial Clusters, Institutions, and Poverty in Nigeria .......................... 1
  1.1 Introduction ........................................................................................................ 1
  1.2 Background ......................................................................................................... 4
  1.3 The Context of the Study: Nigeria's Politics and Economy .......................... 7
  1.4 Research Design .............................................................................................. 9
  1.5 Structure of the Book ...................................................................................... 22
  References ............................................................................................................. 23

2 The Nexus of Industrial Clusters and Poverty ................................................. 27
  2.1 Introduction ........................................................................................................ 27
  2.2 Industrialization, Employment, and Living Standards .............................. 28
     2.2.1 Industrial Manufacturing as the Source of Economic Growth .......... 28
     2.2.2 Manufacturing Pathway Impact on Employment and Poverty (Living Standards) ................................................................. 29
  2.3 Social Protection and Labor Benefits ............................................................... 32
     2.3.1 Social Protection, the State, and the Firm ........................................... 32
  2.4 Institutions and Cluster Development ............................................................. 34
     2.4.1 Institutions and Area of Analysis .......................................................... 34
     2.4.2 Formal and Informal Institutions ......................................................... 35
     2.4.3 Levels of Institutional Hierarchy .......................................................... 36
  2.5 Productive Industrial Clusters, Social Protection, and Living Standards .......... 41
     2.5.1 Multidimensional Poverty and Standard of Living .............................. 44
     2.5.2 Understanding the Gap in Literature: Industrial Clusters and Poverty ................................................................. 46
  2.6 Bridging the Gap in Literature: Industrial Clusters, Poverty, and Labor Welfare ................. 47
  2.7 Summing Up .................................................................................................... 50
  References ............................................................................................................. 51
3 Living Standards and Industrial Clusters in Nigeria

3.1 Introduction
3.2 Africa’s Industrial Efforts in Comparative Regional Perspective
3.3 Background on Nigeria
3.4 Industrialization, Poverty, and Inequality in Nigeria
  3.4.1 Historical Evolution of Nigeria’s Political Economy and Industrial Landscape
  3.4.2 Understanding the Industrial Landscape of Nigeria: Core Drivers
3.5 Status and Structure of Otigba Computer Village
  3.5.1 Evolution of the Otigba Cluster
  3.5.2 General Profile
  3.5.3 ICT-Related Business Owners
  3.5.4 Supporting Systems for Business Enterprises
  3.5.5 Social and Professional Associations
  3.5.6 Other Actors
  3.5.7 Different Levels of Government
  3.5.8 Relationship Between Actors
  3.5.9 Constraints to SMEs Clusters Performance and Development
  3.5.10 Institutions Promoting Consistency of Markets and Social Cohesion
3.6 Summing Up: Understanding the Socio-Economic and Institutional Universe of the Otigba Cluster

References

4 Industrial Cluster Impact on Employment and Poverty: Analysis of Living Standards

4.1 Introduction
4.2 The Employment Spectrum: Formal and Informal Work
4.3 Cluster Employment and Skills
4.4 Cluster-Level Analysis of Living Standards
  4.4.1 Analysis of Employees’ Living Standards in the Cluster
4.5 Summing Up

References

5 Social Protection and Living Standards in Informal Industrial Clusters

5.1 Introduction
5.2 Social Protection and Employment: An Outline Framework
  5.2.1 Social Protection in SSA
5.3 Analysis of Firm Characteristics and Standard of Living
  5.3.1 Analysis of Variables
5.4 Interpretation of Results
  5.4.1 Characteristics of Firms that Improve Standard of Living of Employees

References