Extreme Poverty, Growth, and Inequality in Bangladesh

Edited by
Joe Devine, Geof D. Wood, Zulfiqar Ali, and Shamsul Alam

PRACTICAL ACTION Publishing
Contents

List of figures and tables vi
Acronyms viii
Bengali terms xi
Acknowledgements xii

1. Sharing the well: towards sustained eradication of extreme poverty in Bangladesh 1
   Geof D. Wood and Joe Devine

2. Ending extreme poverty in Bangladesh: trends, drivers, and policies 11
   Binayak Sen and Zulfiqar Ali

3. Leaving no one behind in Bangladesh: the case for a new political settlement 31
   Joe Devine and Geof D. Wood

4. Guardianship and processes of change: the feminization of extreme poverty in Bangladesh 51
   Mathilde Maitrot

5. Financial exclusion and extreme poverty in Bangladesh 71
   Mustafa K. Mujeri

6. Dynamics of regional poverty and real wages: policy implications for development interventions 89
   Shamsul Alam and Kazi Iqbal

7. Agricultural commercialization and employment generation: implications for the extreme poor 109
   K.A.S. Murshid

8. Urbanization and extreme poverty 125
   Nazrul Islam

9. Reforming the social security system for poverty reduction 141
   Sadiq Ahmed

10. Conclusion: sharing the well 161
    Zulfiqar Ali and Geof D. Wood

Index 181